DEPARTMENT OF MINES.

EXAMINATION FOR ASSAYERS FOR LICENCE TO PRACTISE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

IN ACCORDANCE with section 12 of the "Bureau of Mines Act," examinations for efficiency in the practice of assaying will be held at Victoria, B.C., on the 18th day of May, 1914, and on such following days as may be found necessary.

Examinations will cover the following subjects, and candidates must be prepared to be examined in all of these subjects:—

(a.) A knowledge of the principles of inorganic chemistry.

(b.) SAMPLING:

Sampling of ores or furnace products and the reductions and preparation of sample for assay, including also the melting of gold dust and sampling of bar for assay.

(c.) QUALITATIVE DETERMINATION:

The qualitative determination of the common elements in ores and furnace products.

(d.) QUANTITATIVE DETERMINATION—ASSAYING:

Bullion—Gold bullion, for gold and silver;
Copper bullion, for copper, gold, and silver;
Lead-copper bullion, for lead, copper, gold, and silver.

Coal:

Determination of moisture, volatile combustible matter, fixed carbon, ash, and sulphur.

Ores and furnace products:

Fire assays—

Gold, silver, and lead.

Wet, and combined wet and fire assays—

Gold and silver, by combined method.

Copper, by electrolytic, colorimetric and volumetric (cyanide or other approved) methods.

Nickel, by electrolytic method.

Iron, lead, lime, zinc, sulphur, and silica, by any approved wet methods.

The mineralogical determination of a number of simple mineral substances.

ENTRANCE FOR EXAMINATION.

Entrance for any examination must be made in writing to the Secretary of the Board of Examiners, at least ten days before the date set for beginning of examination, and must be accompanied by the prescribed fee ($15).

CERTIFICATE.

A certificate of efficiency in assaying will, upon payment of the prescribed fee ($15), be issued to each successful candidate, which certificate shall be considered as a licence to practise assaying in British Columbia; and notice is hereby given that only those holding such certificate of proficiency or licence will be allowed to act as assayors in this Province, under penalty, as provided by the Act.

EXEMPTION FROM EXAMINATION.

In accordance with subsection (2) of section 12 of the Act, graduates of certain Schools of Mines and Colleges may be exempt from examinations, and may, upon satisfying the examiners, as provided in the Act, receive such certificate of competency or licence, upon payment of the fee therefor ($15).

The examination will consist chiefly of the practical assaying of samples, and while the Department of Mines will provide all the apparatus and chemicals usually necessary, it will not undertake to provide any special or unusual appliances or chemicals which might be called for, and if a candidate should require such he will have to provide them at his own expense.

Candidates must provide themselves with such platinum ware and sets of weights as they may require, as these will not be furnished at the examination.

The Department of Mines will make no charge for the use of chemicals or apparatus, but a candidate will be charged for all breakages or unnecessary loss caused by him.

Any additional information desired may be obtained from D. E. Whittaker, Secretary, Board of Examiners, Victoria.

RICHARD McBRIDE,
Minister of Mines.

"WATER ACT, 1914."

BEFORE THE BOARD OF INVESTIGATION.

In the Matter of: First, That Part of the Bonaparte River which is within the Railway Belt, including Streams which drain into that River within the Railway Belt, except Streams on which the Claims for Water Rights have already been heard by the Board; second, Battle or Eight-mile Creek, Semlin or Tsolin Lake, Cultus Lake, and Stinking Lake, Tributaries of the Thompson River, and Unnamed Streams in their vicinity.

A MEETING of the Board of Investigation will be held at Ashcroft on the 16th day of June, 1914, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, when all claims to water rights or privileges on the said streams which have been filed, all objections thereto, and the plans prepared for the use of the Board will be open for inspection.

All persons interested are entitled to examine these, and to file objections thereto in writing if they deem fit.

At this meeting claimants who have not previously done so shall prove their title to lands to which their water records are appurtenant. This may be done by producing, in case of Crown-granted lands, the title deeds, or a certificate of encumbrance; or in case of lands not held under Crown grant, by producing the pre-emption record, the agreement of sale, the mining record, or other documents of title.

Objections will be heard forthwith if the party objected to has received sufficient notice of the objection.

The Board at the said meeting will determine the quantity of water which may be used under each record, the further works which are necessary for such use, and will set dates for the filing of plans of such works, and for the commencement and completion of such works.

And whereas there may be persons who, before the 1st June, 1912, were entitled to water rights on any of the said streams and yet have not filed statements of their claims with the Board of Investigation; such persons are required to file on or before the 1st day of June, 1914, a statement as required by section 294 of the "Water Act, 1914." Forms (No. 50 for irrigation, and No. 51 for other purposes) may be obtained from any Government Agent in the Province.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., the 6th day of May, 1914.

For the Board of Investigation.

J. F. ARMSTRONG,
Chairman.

The water rights maps and the tabulation of records will be open for inspection at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, on the said 16th day of June, at Ashcroft. my7

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.
Tuesday, the 7th day of April, 1914.

PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS application has been made on behalf of the City of Port Coquitlam, British Columbia, for a free grant for public park purposes of legal Subdivision 10 of Section 12, Township 39, west of the Coast Meridian, containing thirty-nine acres:

And whereas an officer of the Department of the Interior inspected the land applied for and reported on 30th January, 1914, that it is practically useless for agriculture, and that in his opinion it would be to the best interests of the community to have the land set apart for park and public purposes:

And whereas the land applied for is vacant and available, and situated within the city limits:

Therefore, His Royal Highness in Council is pleased to set apart for public purposes legal Subdivision 10 of Section 12, Township 39, west of the Coast Meridian, and to authorize a grant thereof to the City of Port Coquitlam for the said purpose, letters patent to contain the customary proviso that the land be used exclusively for the purpose for which it is conveyed.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
ap20 Clerk of the Privy Council.

[533]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.
Saturday, the 28th day of February, 1914.

PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS application has been received from the Department of Militia and Defence for certain land for rifle-range purposes near Armstrong, British Columbia, more particularly described as follows:

Composed of all that portion of the South Half of Section Twenty-four, and all that portion of the South Half of the North Half of said Section Twenty-four, and all that portion of the West Half of Legal Subdivision Thirteen of said Section Twenty-four, in the Seventeenth Township, in the Tenth Range west of the 6th meridian;

And all those portions of Legal Subdivisions Thirteen, Fourteen, Fifteen, Sixteen of Section Thirteen, in the Seventeenth Township, in the Tenth Range west of the 6th meridian;

And all that portion of Fractional Legal Subdivision Thirteen lying west of Crown grant 440, in Section Eighteen, in the Seventeenth Township, in the Ninth Range west of the 6th meridian;

And all those portions of Fractional Legal Subdivisions Four, Five, and Twelve lying west of Crown grant 440 and Lot 996, Group 1, in Section Nineteen, in the Seventeenth Township, in the Ninth Range west of the 6th meridian, containing by admeasurement 770 acres, more or less;

And whereas it is represented that the lands applied for are suitable for rifle-range purposes, and that a range has already been established thereon, the Local Dominion Land Agent at Kamloops having reported on inspection that these lands are not suitable for agriculture,—

Therefore His Royal Highness the Governor-General in Council is pleased to set apart and appropriate for the purposes of a rifle range the said lands which are vacant and available; such rifle range to be under the jurisdiction and control of the Department of Militia and Defense subject, however, to the said lands being used for the purpose for which they are set apart.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
ap30 Clerk of the Privy Council.

[720]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Saturday, the 14th day of March, 1914.

PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

HIS Royal Highness in Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:

The regulations for the survey, administration, disposal and management of Dominion lands within the Forty-mile Railway Belt of the Province of British Columbia, as established by the Order in Council of the 17th day of September, 1889, and the amendments thereto, are hereby further amended, as follows:

The following subsection (c) is hereby added to section 22 of the said regulations:

(c.) Residence in vicinity.—Permanent residence by an entrant upon a farm situate within a distance of nine miles from his homestead, in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement, and owned and occupied by him, or permanent residence on a farm so situate owned or entered for and occupied by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, stepfather, stepmother, stepbrother, stepsister, stepson, stepdaughter, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, half-brother, or half-sister and, in the event of the death of such owner or occupant, continued permanent residence on such farm shall be accepted as residence upon the homestead, the provisions of this subsection to be retroactive.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
ap23 Clerk of the Privy Council.

[1041]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Friday, the 17th day of April, 1914.

PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

THE Minister of the Interior reports, under date 6th April, 1914, that application has been received from the Alpine Club of Canada for a parcel of land along the shore of Lake O'Hara in the Yoho Park for the purpose of erecting thereon a building for the use of the members of the Club. This parcel of land consists of: that certain parcel or tract of land situate in the north-east quarter of Section Thirty-three (33), Township Twenty-seven (27), Range Seventeen (17), west of the fifth (5) meridian, in the Yoho Park of Canada, containing an area of two (2) acres, more or less, as shown on the plan of the survey of the Alpine Club of Canada's lot on the shore of Lake O'Hara, approved and confirmed by E. Deville, Surveyor-General, on the 16th day of December, A.D. 1913.

The Minister observes that clause three of the Dominion Parks Regulations which were re-established by Order in Council of the 6th June, A.D. 1911, under authority of section 18 of "Dominion Forest Reserves and Parks Act," assented to on the 19th day of May, A.D. 1911; provides for a reservation of one hundred feet along the shore of each lake, river, or stream within the parks. This parcel of land applied for by the Alpine Club is partly included in this reserve; however, as the mountain slope almost reaches the lake at this point and it is too precipitous to permit of the passage of vehicles, the reservation of twenty feet along the shore of the lake which was provided for at the time of the survey would appear to meet the requirements of the public for a trail.—

The Minister, therefore, recommends that he be authorized to issue a conditional lease for this parcel of land to the Alpine Club of Canada, for the purpose above specified and as provided for in the regulations above referred to, at an annual rental of one dollar ($1).

The committee submit the same for approval.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
my7 Clerk of the Privy Council.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867,"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicant; such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in each Electoral District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest Electoral Districts in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House, to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches by 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained from application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 25th, 1910.

THORNTON FELL,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(p.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, firm, or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to engage in or carry on, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities in any such company, and to pledge, sell, hold, issue, or reissue the same, with or without guarantee of principal and interest, or otherwise to deal with or dispose of the same:

(q.) To acquire and take over as a going concern any business or operations now or hereafter carried on by any person, firm, or corporation engaged in or empowered to engage in any business within the powers of the Company, and to pay for the same in whole or in part in cash or wholly or partly with shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company:

(r.) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to those of the Company:

(s.) To raise and assist in raising for and to aid by way of bonus, promise, endorsement, guarantee, or otherwise any person or firm or corporation with which the Company may have business relations, and to act as employee, agent, or manager of any such person, firm, or corporation, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such person, firm, or corporation:

(t.) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 44 of the "Companies Act," to use any of the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities or the funds of the Company to purchase or otherwise acquire and to take, hold, or sell the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of or in any other company or corporation, and to guarantee payment of the principal and interest of the bonds, debentures, or dividends upon the shares of any other company or corporation, and to promote any company or corporation having objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Company, and while holding such shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other company or corporation to exercise all the rights and powers of ownership thereof, including the voting-powers thereof:

(u.) To pay the legal and other expenses of and preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company either wholly or partly in cash, or, with the approval of the shareholders, wholly or partly by the issue and allotment of fully paid-up shares of the capital stock of the Company, or of the bonds, debentures, and securities thereof, with the approval of the shareholders of the Company:

(v.) Upon any issue of shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company, to employ brokers, commission agents, and underwriters, and to provide for the remuneration of such persons or any other persons rendering services of any kind to the Company by payment in cash, or, with the approval of the shareholders, by the issue of shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company, or by the granting of options to take the same or in any other manner allowed by law, with the approval thereof by the shareholders of the Company:

(w.) To invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as the directors may from time to time determine:

(x.) To provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company, or formerly engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, and families of such persons, by grants of money, pensions, insurance, or other payments, and by providing or subscribing towards places of instruction and recreation, and hospitals, dispensaries, medical and other attendance, and other assistance as the Company shall think fit, and to form, subscribe for, and otherwise aid benevolent, religious, scientific, or other institutions or objects which shall have any moral or other claims to support or aid by the Company by reason of the locality of its operations or otherwise:

(y.) To sell, lease, or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular either for cash or for shares, bonds, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or partly for cash or partly for such shares, bonds, debentures, or securities:

(z.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any real or personal property or assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of the Company:

(aa.) To procure the Company to be licensed, registered, or otherwise recognized in any foreign country, and to designate any person therein as attorney or representative of the Company, with power to represent the Company in all matters according to the laws of such foreign country, and to accept service for and on behalf of the Company of any process or suit:

(bb.) The business or purpose of the Company is from time to time to do any or more of the acts and things herein set forth, either as principals, factors, or agents, and generally to carry on any business, whether organized or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of and render profitable any of the properties or rights of the Company, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, and convenient or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company; and it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the objects of the Company shall not be restricted by reference to any other objects, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such manner as to widen, and not restrict, the powers of the Company:

The operations of the Company to be carried on throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere.

(g.) To purchase, construct, acquire, lease, let, own, hold, sell, equip, work, maintain, and operate such mills, factories, warehouses, freight-sheds, shops, buildings, railway-sidings, machinery, and appliances as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(h.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, and to hold, sell, transfer, lease, dispose of, or otherwise deal with, mines, mining rights, mining lands, mineral claims or locations, timber limits, or any other property capable of being used for the interests of the Company and the promotion of its purposes or any of them, and to carry on any business relating to the mining or working of any materials or natural products, the production, working, and preparation of the same and of any other materials that may be usefully or conveniently used in the manufacturing or other operations of the Company or otherwise:

(i.) To construct, acquire, own, manage, charter, operate, hire, and lease all kinds of steam and sailing vessels, boats, tugs, barges, and other vessels, wharves and docks:

(j.) To apply for and obtain, register, purchase, lease, or license, on royalty or otherwise, acquire, and hold, use, own, operate, and introduce, and to sell, grant, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account, any patents of invention, licences, concessions, trade-marks, trade-names, improvements, processes, and the like, or any other such property or rights:

(k.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to engage in or carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (national, Provincial, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interests or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, concessions, or franchises which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, comply with, or surrender or otherwise dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, concessions, and franchises:

(m.) To take and accept mortgages, hypothecs, charges, or liens on real or personal property, or any other security whatsoever, from customers or other debtors of the Company, and enforce the same, and to sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of all or any of such securities as the directors of the Company may consider necessary:

(n.) To lend money as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performances of contracts by any such persons, firms, or corporations:

(o.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, bonds, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To amalgamate with or to acquire and take over as a going concern the undertaking, goodwill, assets, or liabilities of any person, firm, or company carrying on any business in whole or in part similar to that which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company; and with a view thereto to acquire all or any of the shares, bonds, debentures, debits, or liabilities of such company, and to pay for any of the same either in cash or in bonds, or stock, or other securities of the Company, or partly in one and partly in the other, or otherwise:

(q.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit officers, employees, or ex-officers or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors or associates in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurances, annuities, pensions, or allowances, and to subscribe and guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(r.) To sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the property and undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, bonds, or securities of any other company:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(t.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(u.) To carry on any business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on or in connection with its business, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(v.) To invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined by the directors of the Company:

(w.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, bailees, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(x.) To do all and everything incidental or conducive or which the Company may think incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(y.) The powers in each paragraph shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph:

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and licensed under the above Act are:—

(a.) To adopt, enter into, and carry into effect the agreement mentioned in clause 3 of the Company's articles of association, with such modifications (if any) as may hereafter be agreed upon:

(b.) To purchase, lease, license, take in exchange, or otherwise acquire in the name of the Company, or in the name or names of any other person or persons, or otherwise, any lands, hereditaments, or premises in the Dominion of Canada, the United States of America, or any other part of the world, and whether of freehold, leasehold, or any tenure, or any estates or interests in such lands, hereditaments, or premises, or options for the purchase thereof, or any other property of any description which the Company may consider useful for any of its objects or purposes, and to develop, work, or otherwise turn the same to account in any manner the Company may deem expedient; and for any of the above purposes, or otherwise, to exercise any of the hereinafter-mentioned powers and objects of the Company, which powers and objects may be exercised independently of the primary objects stated in this clause:

(c.) To improve, manage, develop the resources of, and turn to account the lands, buildings, and rights for the time being belonging to the Company, or in which the Company is interested, in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by clearing, draining, fencing, planting, building, improving, leasing, cultivating, farming, stocking, grazing, mining, and establishing towns, villages, and settlements:

(d.) To stock the same or other lands, and to breed, buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of stock, cattle, sheep, and produce; and to buy, manufacture, sell, and deal in all kinds of goods, chattels, merchandise, and effects required by the Company or by others:

(e.) To carry on the business of farmers, graziers, meat and fruit preservers, brewers, planters, miners, metallurgists, quarry-owners, brickmakers, builders, contractors for the construction of works, both public and private, merchants, importers and exporters, printers, publishers, ship-builders, ship-owners, brokers, and any other businesses which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to develop the Company's property or business:

(f.) To invest money at interest on the security of freehold and leasehold land, the produce of lands, stocks, wool, cattle, sheep, goods, chattels, merchandise, shares, securities, and other property and effects in the said Dominion of Canada, or United States of America, or elsewhere:

(g.) To act as agents for the investment, loan, payment, transmission, and collection of money, and for the purchase, sale, improvement, development, and management of lands or other property in the Dominion of Canada, or United States of America, or elsewhere, including business concerns and undertakings, and generally to transact and undertake all kinds of agency business, whether in respect of agricultural, commercial, or financial matters:

(h.) To subscribe for, issue on commission, or otherwise, and deal in mortgages, bonds, obligations, securities, and other investments, and in particular those charged on or otherwise in connection with land in the Dominion of Canada or the United States of America:

(i.) To give any guarantee in relation to mortgages, loans, investments, and securities, whether made, or effected, or acquired through the Company's agency or otherwise, and generally to guarantee or become sureties for the performance of any contracts or obligations:

(k.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, issue, discount, and otherwise deal with promissory notes, bills of exchange, letters of credit, circular notes, and other mercantile instruments:

(l.) To aid, encourage, and promote immigration into any lands or property acquired or controlled by the Company, and to colonize the same, and for such purposes to lend and grant any sums of money for any purposes which may be, or may be supposed to be, for the advantage of the Company:

(m.) To purchase, hire, make, construct, or otherwise acquire or provide and maintain, improve, manage, and work any roads, tramways, bridges, wells, reservoirs, watercourses, aqueducts, shafts, adits, tunnels, furnaces, crushing-mills, hydraulic works, electrical works, gasworks, chemical-works, or reduction-works of any kind, warehouses, workshops, factories, dwelling-houses, or other buildings, engines, plant, machinery, steamships, ships, electric launches, boats, barges, implements, stock, goods, and other works, conveniences, and property of any description in connection with or for the use in or promoting any branch of the Company's business, or for developing, utilizing, or turning to account any of the Company's property; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the maintenance, improvement, management, working, control, or superintendence of any such works and conveniences:

(o.) To search or prospect for, excavate, quarry, dredge, win, purchase, or otherwise obtain ores and substances of the earth, and to extract, reduce, wash, crush, smelt, manipulate, and treat the same, and by any process or means whatsoever obtain gold, silver, and other metals, minerals, precious stones, or other valuable substances therefrom, or prepare the same for market, and to carry on the business of miners and workers and winners of metals, minerals, and precious stones in all or any of its branches, and also to carry on any metallurgical operations:

(p.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(q.) To purchase or otherwise acquire or undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any other company, corporation, association, firm, or person which or who shall be carrying on, or which in the case of a company shall be authorized to carry on, any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which or who may be possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to make and carry into effect arrangements for or with respect to the union of interests, sharing profits, or co-operation with any other companies, corporations, or persons:

(r.) To pay for any property or business in shares (to be treated as either wholly or partly paid up) or debentures or debenture stock of the Company or in money, or partly in shares or debentures or debenture stock and partly in money:

(s.) To sell, lease, license, let on hire, exchange, mortgage, turn to account, or otherwise dispose of, absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, any of the property, concessions, rights, or privileges of the Company, or all or any of its undertakings, for such considerations as the Company may think fit, and to accept payment therefor in money or in shares (either fully or partly paid up), stock, debentures, or obligations of any other company or corporation, either by a fixed payment or payments, or conditionally upon or varying with gross earnings, profits, or other contingency:

(t.) To establish or promote or concn in establishing or promoting any other company, corporation, association, or private undertaking whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any part of the undertaking, property, concessions, licences, grants, or rights of this Company, or the carrying-on of all or any of the objects of this Company, or shall be in any manner calculated to enhance, either directly or indirectly, the interests of the Company or otherwise, and to acquire and hold shares, stock, or securities of, or guarantee the payment of any securities issued by, or any other obligations of any such company, corporation, association, or undertaking, and to defray all or any of the expenses of the establishment or promotion of any such company, corporation, association, or undertaking as aforesaid, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, corporation, association, or undertaking, and to guarantee or underwrite subscriptions, or to subscribe for the same or any part thereof, or to employ others to underwrite or subscribe therefor:

(u.) To acquire by original subscription or otherwise, and to hold or sell or otherwise dispose of, shares, stock, debentures, or debenture stock or any interest in the revenues or profits of any company, corporation, association, partnership, or person carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company or otherwise; and upon any return of capital, distribution of assets, or division of assets, or division of profits, to distribute such shares, stock, debentures, or debenture stock among the members of the Company:

(v.) To borrow and raise money upon loan or otherwise for the purposes of the Company, and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, bonds or debentures to bearer or otherwise, or debenture stock, mortgages, and other instruments for securing the repayment thereof, with or without charge upon the undertaking of the Company or its property, present or future, or its uncalled capital, or upon its income or profits, and upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the Company shall think fit, and so that the same may be either permanent or redeemable, with or without a bonus or premium, and be further secured by a trust deed or otherwise as the Company think fit:

(w.) To establish and support or to aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, trust funds, or conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance:

(x.) To procure the Company to be constituted or incorporated, or registered, or domiciled in the Dominion of Canada, or the United States of America, or any other part of the world, as may be found expedient, either as a company or corporation, or to be otherwise recognized in any part of the said Dominion of Canada, the United States of America, or in any country whatsoever, and to do all acts and things to empower the Company to carry on its business, or carry into effect any of its objects in any part of the world where it may desire to carry on the same:

(y.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(z.) To advance or lend money to such persons on such security, or without security, and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to persons having dealings with the Company, and generally to transact and undertake and carry into effect all such commercial, financial, trading, or other businesses or operations as may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(aa.) To invest, lend, or otherwise deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and generally in such manner as from time to time may be determined, and to apply the funds of the Company in paying the legal expenses incurred in or about the formation or establishment of the Company or its registration, or in paying brokerage, commissions, or other remuneration for services rendered in placing or procuring subscriptions for any of its shares, debentures or other capital, or in negotiating for or obtaining contracts or orders for the Company:

(bb.) To amalgamate with any other company or corporation whose objects are or include objects similar to any of the objects or purposes of this Company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares, stock, or otherwise) of the undertaking and property, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares, stock, or otherwise) of all the shares or stock of this or any such other company or corporation, subject to the liabilities of this or any such other company or corporation as aforesaid, or by partnership, or any arrangement of the nature of partnership, or in any other manner:

(cc.) To accept surrenders of shares in the Company on any terms and for any consideration:

(dd.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, either as principal, agent, contractor, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either in the name of, or by, or through any corporation, company, firm, or person as trustee, agent, contractor, or otherwise:

(ee.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

"BENEVOLENT SOCIETIES ACT."

DOMINION OF CANADA:
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.
TO WIT:

In the Matter of the "Benevolent Societies Act," and in the Matter of the Incorporation of "The Quon Yick Club."

WE, Lee Sai Chung, Iz. Kar, Ton Chuek, and Lee How, of the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, do solemnly declare that:—

1. A number of Chinamen, including ourselves, intend to unite into a corporation to be called "The Quon Yick Club."

2. The purposes of the corporation shall be as follows:—

(a.) For purpose of social intercourse among members of the Chinese Colony in the City of Vancouver, mutual helpfulness, and rational recreation;

(b.) For improvement and development of the moral, social, and physical condition of young Chinamen resident in Vancouver.

3. The first trustees of the corporation shall be as follows: Lee Sai Chung, Iz. Kar, Ton Chuek, Lee How; and their successors shall be appointed annually by ballot at the regular meeting of the Club, to be held on the premises of the corporation in the said City of Vancouver.

And we make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true, and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the "Canada Evidence Act."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2503 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The B.C. Steel Works, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of five hundred thousand dollars, divided into five thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on the trades or businesses of ironmasters, steel-makers, steel-convertisers, colliery proprietors, coke-manufacturers, miners, smelters, tin-plate makers, and ironfounders in all their respective branches;

(b.) To search for, get, work, raise, make merchantable, sell, and deal in iron, scrap iron, coal, ironstone, briek-earth, brieks, and all other metals and minerals and substances, and to manufacture and sell patent fuel;

(c.) To carry on business as manufacturers of chemicals and manures, distillers, dye-makers, gas-makers, metallurgical and mechanical engineers;

(d.) To purchase and manufacture, sell, and otherwise dispose of machinery and materials of all descriptions;

(e.) To construct, own, and operate wharves and warehouses, and to act as bargemen, lightermen, warehousemen, wharfingers, and forwarding agents;

(f.) To build, equip, work, maintain, and improve and operate private railroad or tramway trackage for the purpose of the Company's business;

(g.) To acquire by purchase the land described and grant the privileges mentioned in the agreement mentioned in clause 3 of the Company's articles of association on the times and conditions therein mentioned; and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement referred to in clause 3 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect, and to alter or modify the same from time to time if the consent of the said vendor (The Standard Trust & Industrial Company, Limited) is first obtained:

(h.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and to hold, sublet, sell, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(i.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(j.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant concessions in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(k.) To enter into partnership or into any agreement for sharing the profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of the Company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(l.) To enter into any arrangement with any private person or with any authorities (Government, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(m.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, and for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(n.) To purchase, take on agreement or lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property which the Company may think necessary or desirable, and to sell, improve, manage, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property, and in general to carry on the business of real-estate and insurance agents, underwriters (the business of insurance excepted), mining and stock brokers, mortgage-brokers, and financial agents, and to appoint agents for all or any of these purposes:

(o.) To construct, maintain, and manage wharves, factories, warehouses, shops, stores, or other works:

(p.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(q.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(r.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(s.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(u.) To do all or any of the above things at any place or places that the directors shall authorize, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(v.) To do all things as are or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. ap30

(k.) To employ as ship's husband and managing agent of any vessel controlled by the Company any person, firm, or company, whether limited or not, and although he or they may not be entitled to any shares or interest in the said vessel in question or in the Company:

(l.) To acquire by staking, purchase, pre-emption, or otherwise, and to hold, manage, work, improve, sell, and turn to account, any lands and hereditaments in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to subdivide, sell, manage, lease, sublet, or otherwise dispose of the same, or any subdivision or part thereof, or any interest therein:

(m.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate any canals, trails, roads, ways, tunnels, subways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, aqueducts, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company:

(n.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the purchase of water records or water privileges:

(o.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as any extension thereof:

(p.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(q.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied:

(r.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or works which may be required in connection with the improvement and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(s.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct, lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity to and light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(t.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(u.) To buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, and merchandise of all kinds:

(v.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land and water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents:

(w.) To carry on the business of ship-owners in all its branches:

(x.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, boarding-houses, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business:

(y.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary and convenient for the purpose of its business:

(z.) To develop the resources of and turn to account any lands and rights over or connected with timber or other lands belonging to or in which the Company is interested:

(aa.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(bb.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(cc.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(dd.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(ee.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(ff.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(gg.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purposes which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(hh.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, bonus, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(ii.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital:

(jj.) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and all other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(kk.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(ll.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(mm.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(nn.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(oo.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this memorandum, except when used with reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the British Dominions or elsewhere:

And it is hereby declared that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except when otherwise expressed in such paragraphs, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2493 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "London Pacific Guarantee Corporation, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

II. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To carry on in the City of Vancouver or at any other place or places in the Province of British Columbia, or in any other part of the world, the business of brokers, money-lenders, financiers, and dealers in all kinds of property, real and personal, and generally to carry on and execute all kinds of financial operations:

(2.) To purchase, contract for, erect, construct for erection of, procure, build, use, rent, exchange, license, lease, or otherwise dispose of all kinds of buildings, houses, warehouses, offices, factories, or any erections, machinery, or works by which the profits or property of the Company may be improved or advantaged, and whether situated on the Company's property or otherwise:

(3.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description situate in the Province of British Columbia or in any other part of the world, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situated, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing building-sites, and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(4.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situated as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants and occupiers and others refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, and other advantages:

(5.) To acquire and take over any business or undertaking carried on upon or in connection with any land or building which the Company may desire to acquire as aforesaid or become interested in, and the whole or any of the assets and liabilities of such business or undertaking, and to carry on the same or to dispose of, remove, or put an end thereto, or otherwise deal with the same as may seem expedient:

(6.) To establish and carry on and to promote the establishment and carrying-on upon any property in which the Company is interested of any business which may be conveniently carried on upon or in connection with such property, and the establishment of which may seem calculated to enhance the value of the Company's interest in such property or to facilitate the disposal thereof:

(7.) To advance and lend money to builders, tenants, and others who may be willing to build on or improve any land or buildings in which the Company is interested, and generally to advance money to such persons and on such terms as may be arranged, and to make such contracts for the sale of land and the erection of buildings thereon in such form as to the Company may seem proper:

(8.) To acquire (whether for cash or capital stock of this Company or by debentures of this Company, or partly for cash and partly for capital stock of this Company, or partly by debentures of this Company, or both, or in any other lawful manner), improve, manage, work, develop, exercise all rights in respect of, lease, purchase, mortgage, hold, sell, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with property of all kinds, and in particular real estate, business concerns and undertakings, and the goodwill of any business concerns and undertakings (whether incorporated or not), mortgages, charges, annuities, patents, stocks, shares, debentures, securities of any kind, and privileges over lands, and any interest in real or personal property, and any charges against such property or against any person or company:

(9.) To acquire by location, purchase, lease, or otherwise real estate, improved and unimproved, timber, timber lands, and personal property of every nature and kind, and to sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(10.) To negotiate loans and to lend money; to search titles to property and make abstracts of the same; to draw, accept, endorse, discount, buy, sell, negotiate, and deal in agreements for the sale and purchase of land or other property, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons, and other negotiable instruments and securities:

(11.) To carry on the business of a safe-deposit and investment company; to borrow or raise money by issue or sale of bonds, mortgages, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company, whether perpetual or otherwise, and to apply the money so raised in such investments as may be deemed advisable:

(12.) To undertake the office of agent, factor, treasurer, attorney, delegate, proxy, and auditor, and to discharge the duties and functions incident thereto upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed:

(13.) To negotiate loans, and act as agents for the loan, transmission, investment, and collection of any rent and other moneys, and for the management and realization of property, and generally to transact all kinds of agency business:

(14.) To deal in and sell, acquire, or hold any stocks, bonds, debentures, shares, scrip, or securities of any Government, State, Dominion, Sovereign, or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and any bonds, debenture stocks, scrip, obligations, shares, stocks, or securities of any company established for the purpose of any railway, tramway, gas, water, dock, telegraph, electric lighting, or other undertaking:

(15.) To give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation, undertaking, or duty, or for the fidelity of any person, and to guarantee persons filling or about to fill situations of trust or confidence against liabilities in connection therewith, and to guarantee the title to or quiet enjoyment of property, either absolutely or subject to any qualifications or conditions, and to guarantee persons interested or about to become interested in any property against any loss, actions, proceedings, claims, or demands in respect of any insufficiency or imperfection or deficiency of title, or in respect of any encumbrances, burdens, or outstanding rights; generally to carry on and transact every kind of guarantee business and every kind of indemnity business and every kind of counter-guarantee and counter-indemnity business:

(16.) Nothing in any of the objects in this memorandum of association contained shall be deemed to confer on the Company any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(17.) To carry on and establish any other business, whether mercantile, manufacturing, or otherwise, and to import, export, trade, purchase, sell, manufacture, and deal in goods, wares, products, and merchandise of every description:

(18.) To acquire by gift, discovery, location, pre-emption, lease, mortgage, development, exchange, or any other lawful means any mineral claim or claims, lease or leases, or other mining property or properties in the Province of British Columbia, and to acquire all the rights and interests of all parties interested in any of said claims, leases, and mining properties, and to pay for same either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company or otherwise:

(19.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise and sell or lease oil and gas properties, construct and maintain pipe-lines, and to drill oil and gas wells, and to develop, operate, lease, or sell the same; to furnish, sell, and supply both natural and artificial gas; to sell and engage in the business of refining the same, and generally to furnish, sell, supply, and dispose of the product of said wells and properties:

(20.) To carry on the business of dredging, hydraulicking, or other process or processes of mining; to purchase, own, erect, and construct plants, vats, tanks, mills, bridges and viaducts, ditches and drains, flumes or other systems of waterways, telephones, tramways, or railways for logging or mill or other purposes; to build, purchase, lease, construct, own, and operate dredges, steamers, barges, boats, tug-boats, steamboats, steamship lines, ferries, and any other water conveyance, dock-wharves (and the same to maintain and manage), mills, and machinery or other process or processes for raising gold from river-beds, or for the reduction of ores, and generally such other works and conveniences as the Company may see fit, and the same to sell in whole or in part at the discretion of the Company, and also to engage in a general business of buying and selling, bonding, staking, mortgaging, exploring, equipping, and operating mines, constructing, operating, leasing, buying, and selling mills, concentrators, electric or other smelters, and other mining, milling, and ore-working, and to transport machinery, equipments, adjuncts, and appliances, also to buy, sell, ship, and generally deal in ores and other mine products:

(21.) To apply for, stake, record, purchase, loan, lease, or otherwise acquire timber licences, timber leases and limits, and timber lands, water leases, water rights, and waterways, and mines and minerals, and to hold, work, and operate and develop or lease and sell the same, and to carry on any business or businesses, industry or industries, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or turn to account or enhance the value of the Company's property, rights, or privileges for the time being:

(22.) To buy or otherwise acquire water rights, water-powers, or water privileges; to own and operate waterworks systems for the supply of water for domestic or other purposes; to generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply, by water-power or any other power, electricity for light, heat, and power in connection with the Company's works and operations, and to dispose of electricity for profit for public or private purposes, and generally to own and operate waterworks, water-powers, and electric appliances, and for such purposes to obtain any proper licences and certificates under the "Water Act," and to have and exercise all powers and privileges thereunder:

(23.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(24.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, covering any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(25.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(26.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(27.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, issue, place, or sell or otherwise deal in the shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, or securities of any other company whatsoever, and to give any guarantee or security in relation thereto or in connection therewith:

(28.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(29.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(30.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or undertaking any of the liabilities of this Company, or of undertaking any business or operations which may appear likely to assist or benefit this Company, or to enhance the value of any property or business of this Company, and to place or guarantee the placing of, underwrite, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire all or any part of the shares or securities of any such company as aforesaid:

(31.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(32.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such person:

(33.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, whether by cash payment or by the allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(34.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, and to secure the repayment of any money borrowed, raised, or owing by mortgage, charge, or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's property or assets (whether present or future), including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge, or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any obligation or liability it may undertake:

(35.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(36.) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, either together or in portions, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any company purchasing the same:

(37.) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any real or personal property or any shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of other companies belonging to this Company, or of which this Company may have the power of disposing:

(38.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(39.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(40.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(41.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(42.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the first twenty-two paragraphs of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

(f.) To conduct and carry on a general trading, mercantile, and commission business:

(g.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, or corporation possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any stocks, shares, or obligations of this Company:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interest, copartnership, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, firm, or corporation carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to guarantee the bonds or contracts or otherwise assist any such person, firm, or corporation, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, firm, or corporation, and to sell, hold, or otherwise deal with the same:

(i.) To sell and dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and either for cash or on such terms as the Company may deem advisable, or for shares or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(k.) To lend or invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(l.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing repayment of the same, and the interest thereon (if any), to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, and its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate bonds, shares, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(m.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any licences, rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and apply for and, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such licences, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(n.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(o.) To apply for, accept, take, hold, and sell, dispose, or deal with shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations, or other securities of any other company, person, or firm:

(p.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members thereof in specie:

(q.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any shares or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(r.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as consideration therefor any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(s.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any other Province or Provinces of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, and to carry on business in any such Province or Provinces or elsewhere.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2500 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "E. W. Whittington Lumber Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of seventy-five thousand dollars, divided into seven hundred and fifty shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To carry on the business of sash and door factory and sawmill proprietors, and the manufacture and sale of lumber, lath, shingles, shingle-bolts, timber, sashes, doors, boxes, and every kind of article and thing manufactured from the aforesaid or used in connection therewith, and also to engage in and to carry on a general cartage business, and the business of general agents, brokers, and any other business or businesses (whether manufacturing or otherwise howsoever) which may seem expedient to the Company to engage in or carry on, not inconsistent with the "Companies

Act" and amending Acts, and it is not intended that the generality of this clause shall be restricted by anything herein elsewhere contained:

(2.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and hold and operate and turn to account any lands, timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, logging outfits, rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, foreshore rights, wharves, sawmills, factories, logs, lumber, and wood of all kinds, buildings, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, or other real and personal property of any kind or nature, and equip, operate, and turn to account, and to sell, lease, sublet, or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(3.) To carry on the business of general contractors and builders, and suppliers of labour and materials of any kind, and the same to build, acquire, possess, and operate factories, machine-shops, and machinery of all kinds:

(4.) To acquire, hold, charter, operate, alienate, convey, and build steamers and steam-tugs, barges, scows, and other vessels, and any interest or shares therein, and to let out to hire or charter the same:

(5.) To purchase, lease, take in exchange, or otherwise acquire lands or any interest therein, together with any buildings or structures that may be on the said lands or any of them, and goods and chattels, and any rights, privileges, or concessions, and to sell, lease, exchange, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the whole or any portion of the same:

(6.) To develop the resources of and turn to account the rents, leases, holdings, estates, property, concessions, and rights for the time being of the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(7.) To take over or otherwise acquire or hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part capable of being so conducted as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire security from any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(8.) To acquire water licences under the provisions of the "Water Act, 1914," and carry on the business of a water company or power company, and accordingly to exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers, and privileges which a water company or power company may acquire, hold, and enjoy under clauses 131 and 133 of the said "Water Act, 1914":

(9.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of moneys in such manner or form as the Company may think fit, and by such means as may from time to time be necessary or deemed advisable for the purposes of this Company, and to mortgage or pledge any or all of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing the same, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(10.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, documents, or securities:

(11.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or Territory of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(12.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of companies having objects altogether or in part similar to this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(13.) To distribute any of the properties of the Company in specie among the shareholders:

(14.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, and to take or acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(15.) To do all such other acts and things as are necessary, incidental, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally such powers and privileges as may from time to time be conferred upon the Company by any authority whatsoever:

(16.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(17.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act." my⁷

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2509 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Western Holdings, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over certain real estate and other interests and assets now owned by Arthur J. Welch, of the said City of Vancouver, assuming all or any charges and liabilities which may exist against the same; and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement referred to in clause 2 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(b.) To acquire tracts of land with the object of subdividing the same into lots and selling such lots when so subdivided, and to exercise all and every power and authority granted by section 64 of the "Companies Act," to declare and pay dividends out of moneys being the net proceeds of the sale of the Company's lands and assets:

(c.) Subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to carry on business as capitalists, financiers, concessionaires, and merchants, and to undertake and execute all kinds of financial and commercial trading and other operations, and to carry on any other business (except that of assurance) which may seem to be capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of these objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(d.) To purchase, either outright or by agreement for sale, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands, buildings, timber, mines, water rights, rights, or concessions in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights connected therewith:

(e.) Subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to develop and turn to account any land or other property acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, pulling down, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(f.) Subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to lend money, with or without security, and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to improve any of the Company's property or assets:

(g.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by mortgages and by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(h.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and, subject to paragraph (o) hereof, to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue the same, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(i.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) To remunerate any person or corporation for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(k.) To sell and dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to promote any other company for any purpose which may seem, either directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) Upon the sale of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, to divide the proceeds thereof among the shareholders in specie:

(m.) To carry on business and do any of the things set out herein in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada and in any foreign country or place:

(n.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(o.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any of the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To carry on the general business of producers and suppliers of any kind and all kinds of light, heat, and motive power by means of electricity, and to generate by the use of steam or water-power or otherwise supply and use electricity for any purpose whatsoever:

(2.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, generate, store, accumulate, and distribute electricity for the purposes of lighting streets, public places, public or private houses or residences, buildings, shops, railways, tramways, and other places, erections, or things, and of supplying motive power or heat in or to all or any of the foregoing, and of plating and separating or otherwise working metals, and for any other profitable or useful purposes; and to purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire, build, construct, work, alter, repair, and deal in any lands, buildings, easements, rights, way-leaves, works, machinery, plant, dynamos, engines, boilers, accumulators, arc, incandescent, and other lamps, cables, wires, instruments, implements, and things for the purposes aforesaid or any of them:

(3.) To buy, sell, lease, manufacture, and operate electric motors, electric heaters, and electrical appliances of all kinds, and to be general dealers in electrical supplies and apparatus of any kind whatsoever, and all kinds of machinery, stores, and fittings required or used in connection with the generation, supply, and use of electricity:

(4.) To contract with any person, company, corporation, or municipality for supplying with electricity, for light, heat, or power purposes, any such person, company, corporation, or municipality, or any cities, towns, streets, ways, lanes, passages, factories, shops, warehouses, docks, markets, theatres, buildings, and places, both public and private; and for such purposes from time to time to construct, lay down, establish, fix, carry, fit up, connect, furnish, and maintain any electric accumulator, storage-battery, electric line, cable, conduit, wire, pipe, switch connection, branch burner, lamp, meter, or other apparatus used in connection therewith:

(5.) And to construct, operate, and maintain electric works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or electric power, and transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or to be supplied by the Company to consumers for heating, lighting, or as a motive power, and to carry on the business of electricians, mechanical engineers, and manufacturers of and dealers in all apparatus and things required for or capable of being used in connection with the generation, distribution, supply, and employment of electricity:

(6.) To promote and form other companies having all or any of the objects herein mentioned, whether in this Province or elsewhere, and to transfer or procure to be transferred to such other companies any or all of the property, business, or undertaking of the Company or which it may control, and to receive in payment therefor shares, bonds, securities, or property of or in such other companies, and to hold, deal with, sell, or dispose of any such shares, bonds, securities, or property, or distribute the same amongst the shareholders of the Company:

(7.) To enter into partnership with or make arrangements for securing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concession, or co-operation with any other company, person, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business, trade, or other undertaking which the Company is authorized to carry on:

(8.) To enter into any agreement with any Government or authority (supreme, local, or municipal) that may seem advantageous to the Company, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any subsidy, rights, privileges, or concessions, and to acquire from any person or persons any subsidies, rights, privileges, or concessions at any time granted, and which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(9.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and deal with and in promissory notes, cheques, bills of exchange, or negotiable instruments:

(10.) To borrow or raise money by issue of or upon bonds, debentures, mortgages, preference shares or stock or other shares of the Company, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including all uncalled capital, for securing the same:

(11.) To pay the expenses of the incorporation of the Company, and to pay commission or other remuneration to brokers or other persons for placing, selling, underwriting, or otherwise disposing of any of the Company's shares, debentures, or other securities or property, and to pay wages or salaries for services rendered, either in money or by allotment of shares in the Company:

(12.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(13.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(14.) If thought fit, to obtain any Act of Parliament dissolving the Company and reincorporating its members as a new Company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any other modification in the Company's constitution:

(15.) To carry out any of the objects, purposes, or business of the Company, either alone or in conjunction with other persons, and either by itself or through any person or company acting as agent, contractor, servant, workman, or otherwise:

(16.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects or the general profit or advantage of the Company:

(17.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(18.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(19.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(20.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(21.) It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this memorandum, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall in nowise be restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company,

Present also by proxy—Capt. F. D. Goddard, Miss Sansom, Mr. H. C. Gibson, Mr. W. V. Drummond, Mr. W. J. Harrison, Capt. W. Lloyd-Jones, Capt. Wm. Owen-Jones, Capt. Neil MacLean, Capt. R. O. Rutherford, Mr. W. J. Solly, Mr. T. G. Turnbull, and Capt. C. I. Williams.

On the meeting being called to order, the chairman, Col. T. H. Tracy, occupied the chair.

The following resolution was moved by Capt. Evans and seconded by Mr. J. A. Fullerton, and passed unanimously:—

RESOLUTION.

That the memorandum of association of the Company be altered by striking out therefrom all the powers given to the Company which are now by law exclusively reserved for trust companies, and more particularly to amend the same by striking out the words in subsection (k) of section 3 of the memorandum of association commencing at the sixth line thereof: "or the taking over such shares, stock, scrip, bonds, notes, debentures, mortgages, or other securities, upon trusts and conditions partly or wholly for the benefit of other persons, and issuing against such matters or things so taken over certificates conferring such rights in such order and subject to such conditions as may be agreed."

By striking out subsection (m) of paragraph 3.

To amend subsection (p) of paragraph 3 of the memorandum of association to read as set forth below.

The meeting then adjourned.

THOS. H. TRACY,
Chairman.

The objects of the Company as altered are:—

(a.) To buy, sell, hold, manage, lease, turn to account, and otherwise deal in freehold real estate within the City of Vancouver, or generally in the Province of British Columbia, and to erect buildings upon or otherwise improve the same:

(b.) To lend or advance money secured by first mortgage on real estate within the said City of Vancouver to such person or persons, corporation or corporations, and on such terms as may seem expedient:

(c.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concessions, or operations with any person or persons, corporation or corporations, carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on:

(d.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, concessions, and privileges which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(e.) To pay for any purchases in whole or in part in cash or by shares in the Company either fully or partly paid up:

(f.) To remunerate any person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered in placing any shares or securities of the Company, either in money or shares of this Company, partly or fully paid up, and to pay all expenses in connection with the incorporation of the Company:

(g.) The lending or investing money in or upon the security of and by way of mortgage, pledge, or otherwise on or over any lands, hereditaments, works, ships, or real property of any description or tenure, or any interest therein, situated in any part of the world:

(h.) Lending money upon or purchasing or otherwise acquiring bills of lading, or the contents thereof, or any crops or produce whatsoever, or any stock, bullion, or effects:

(i.) The subscribing to, purchasing, or otherwise acquiring or lending money upon any stock, scrip, shares, bonds, notes, debentures, mortgages, or other securities, whether fully paid up or not, or any State, Government, authority, company, syndicate, partnership, or person, British, colonial, or foreign, and holding, dealing in, or selling the same, or distributing the same among any persons who may or may become entitled thereto:

(j.) The applying for and obtaining, by grant, purchase, or otherwise, any concessions of any right, property, or privileges by any Government, British, colonial, or foreign, or by any person, corporation, State, county, company, or authority, and performing and fulfilling the terms thereof:

(k.) The acquiring, buying, or lending money upon and holding or selling shares, stock, scrip, bonds, notes, debentures, mortgages, or other securities of any company, society, partnership, or person, or of any Government, State, county, local board, city, municipality, or other authority whatsoever, and whether British, colonial, or foreign:

(l.) Procuring the Company or any other company to be incorporated or registered in any Colony, Dependency, State, Territory, Province, or foreign country, or doing whatever else is necessary or expedient in order to comply with or defer to the laws and customs of such Colony, Dependency, State, Territory, Province, or foreign country:

(m.) Forming other companies for all or any of the objects mentioned in this article in any Colony, Dependency, State, Territory, Province, or foreign country, and transferring or procuring to be transferred to them any property or business belonging to this Company, or which this Company can control, or which it may be thought desirable this Company should not itself acquire or retain, and taking, acquiring, and holding shares, subject to or not subject to calls or other liabilities, or bonds of or in any such new company, and holding or selling such shares or bonds, or distributing them among the members of the Company, and subsidizing or otherwise assisting any company formed for any of the foregoing purposes:

(n.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise any water rights or water-power under the provisions of the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act" of British Columbia:

(o.) To act and conduct business as financial, insurance, collection, real-estate, house, special, and general agents and brokers; to acquire agencies and to be appointed agent for any person, firm, or corporation; to act as agent for any ship-owner or companies operating steamboats or other vessels used in connection with navigation or shipping; to act generally as appraiser, valuator, or adjuster of real estate, personal estate, stocks, goods, and chattels, or for any other lawful purpose; to act as accountant and auditor, and to assume and perform such duties as are or may be performed by accountants and auditors; to borrow on any terms and conditions any sum or sums of moneys, and at such rate or rates of interest as may from time to time be agreed upon, on or without the security of mortgages, notes, debentures, deposit receipts, or pledges of all or any part of the Company's property or assets, or calls on the shareholders made or to be made; to receive money and securities for investment or on security of bonds, bills of sale, promissory notes, acknowledgments of other documents or evidences of debt of the Company or otherwise; with or without any security to invest and deal with any moneys or securities as herein provided, and also the moneys and securities of the Company, in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To do all other things or acts as are or may be incidental or conducive to the general profits or advantage of the Company, and to have full, free, and ample powers of carrying on such other lines of business as are necessarily or conveniently incidental thereto, it being provided that the objects for which the Company is established are restricted to all that territory within the Province of British Columbia.

(c.) To buy, sell, deal in, both wholesale and retail, or either wholesale or retail, any and all kinds of goods, toys, games, wares, merchandise, articles, and commodities, whether raw or manufactured, which the Company may see fit:

(d.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, build, establish, equip, and operate stores and premises, in any country or place, for the purposes of the said businesses or any of them:

(e.) To establish and operate refreshment rooms and parlours in connection with the said stores and businesses, and to buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of drinks and refreshments:

(f.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(g.) To purchase, lease, hold, mortgage, take or hire, or otherwise acquire, or deal with, sell, dispose of, or exchange, any and all kinds of property, both real and personal, stocks, notes, and shares of other corporations, or shares or interest in any other businesses, whether incorporated or not, which the Company may desire in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(h.) To construct, equip, carry out, maintain, manage, or control, purchase, or otherwise acquire, erect, reconstruct, operate, and adapt any buildings, offices, and workshops, mills, plants, machinery, and other things found necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company, improvements, roads, ways, tramways, telegraph and telephone lines, electric works, warehouses, shops, and buildings for the purposes of the Company, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests:

(i.) To apply for, take out, purchase, take, lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal in any patents, patent rights or inventions, copyright or secret processes, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or limited rights to use any secret or other information as to any prescription, composition, receipt which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(j.) To negotiate loans, and lend and to make advances in cash, goods, or other supplies to other persons, companies, or corporations, and to take and hold real estate and personal securities for the same:

(k.) To acquire or promote companies or undertakings, and to take part in the management or supervision or control of the business or operations of any person, company, or undertaking, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(l.) To amalgamate with any other company having powers wholly or in part similar to the powers of this Company:

(m.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authority all rights, concessions, and privileges that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(n.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventures, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares and stock in, or securities of, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, and reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares, stocks, and securities:

(o.) To sell the undertaking, property, and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may see fit, and in particular for shares and debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; to promote any company or companies for the purposes of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company; to distribute in specie and otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, and other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(p.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any of the Provinces of Canada or any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place, and, if thought fit, to obtain any Act of the Provincial Legislature or the Dominion Parliament dissolving the Company and reincorporating its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any modification or enlargement of the Company's constitution; to acquire, take over, or enter into contracts for or with any Government, municipality, individual, firm, or corporation in connection with or incidental to the purposes of this Company:

(q.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company:

(r.) To raise or borrow money or to secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged upon the whole or any part of the property of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem, purchase, or pay off any such securities:

(s.) To draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(t.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, enfranchise, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the moneys, property, or rights of the Company as may from time to time be determined; to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stocks, bonds, or other securities in any other company, corporation, or individual having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, and to hold, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of such shares, bonds, and securities:

(u.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, and either alone or in conjunction with or as factors or agents for any other company or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(v.) To act as agents for other persons, companies, or firms, and generally to conduct a general agency business:

(w.) To publish, edit, purchase, compile, print, bind, and distribute books, magazines, papers, pamphlets, and generally all and any kind of literature and printed matter, and to conduct a general business in newspapers, magazines, and periodicals of every kind and description, and to dispose of the same by subscription, circulating libraries, agencies, and the like:

(x.) To operate refrigerators and cold-storage plant or plants, and such other plants and appliances and such other business or businesses in connection therewith as this Company may from time to time deem advisable and expedient, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

- (j.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct, lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:
- (k.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or any persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electrical power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:
- (l.) To carry on the business of a gas company in all its branches, including the power to manufacture gas, and lay down, maintain, and repair all necessary pipes, conduits, meters, lamps, and appliances of every description necessary for distributing gas to consumers and to erect, construct, maintain, and operate all machinery, fixtures, appliances, and means necessary for the regulation and distribution of gas and the disposing thereof to consumers:
- (m.) To contract with any person, body corporate or politic, for supplying compressed air and electricity or water-power to any such person, body corporate or politic, or to any streets, ways, lanes, passages, tramways, mines, smelters, mills, manufactorys, shops, warehouses, public or private houses, buildings, and places, and from time to time to lay down, carry, fit up, connect, and finish any cumulative storage-battery, cable, wiring, pipes, flumes, switch connections, branch, burner, lamp, motor, transformer, or other apparatus for or in connection with any compressed air, water or electric main, pipe, lead, or cable which for the purposes may be required, and to let any such apparatus for hire for such sum as may be agreed upon:
- (n.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:
- (o.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:
- (p.) To buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, metals, and merchandise of all kinds:
- (q.) To erect, establish, operate, and maintain stores, hotels, taverns, lodging and boarding houses, liverys and stables, trading-posts, and any other necessary buildings and works; and to use, convert, adapt, and maintain all or any of such buildings and premises to and for any of the aforesaid purposes, with any usual or necessary adjuncts:
- (r.) To apply for and obtain liquor licences and renewals thereof under the "Liquor Licence Act" for British Columbia or Canada:
- (s.) To invest, lend, and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner and upon such security as may from time to time be determined:
- (t.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:
- (u.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:
- (v.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts or, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:
- (w.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:
- (x.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:
- (y.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:
- (z.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, bouns, or concession which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:
- (aa.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital:
- (bb.) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and all other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(cc.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company carrying on business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(dd.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(ee.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(ff.) To sell, give, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(gg.) To establish shops or stores on the Company's property, and to produce and sell articles and goods of every description:

(hh.) To develop the resources of the property by building, reclaiming, clearing, draining, and otherwise improving on any terms or system that may be considered advisable:

(ii.) To provide the religious, educational, sanitary, and general welfare of settlers on the property of the Company, and others, by building, establishing, making, or supporting houses, factories, stores, buildings, churches, schools, reading-rooms, baths, parks, places of recreation, building societies, insurance societies, and other institutions and improvement-works:

(jj.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada, in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place; and, if thought fit, to obtain any Act of the Provincial Legislature or the Dominion Parliament dissolving the Company or reincorporating its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any modification or enlargement of the Company's constitution:

(kk.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this memorandum, except when used with reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the British Dominions or elsewhere:

And it is hereby declared that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To establish, maintain, conduct, and carry on the business of licensed victuallers, wine, beer, and spirit merchants, brewers, maltsters, distillers, importers, and manufacturers and importers of any and all kinds of spirituous and fermented liquors, and of aerated, mineral, and artificial waters and other drinks, and also the business of tobacco and cigar merchants, both wholesale and retail, and any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection therewith, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value or render more profitable the business of the Company or the Company's properties or rights:

(b.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of hop merchants and brewers, malt factors, corn merchants, wine and spirit merchants, and importers and distillers and bottlers, bottle-makers, bottle-stopper makers, vat and tank makers, potters, bar-house keepers, hotelkeepers, restaurant-keepers, lodging-house keepers, ice manufacturers and merchants, yeast-dealers, grain dealers and sellers, and isinglass manufacturers, and to carry on the general business of cold-storage proprietors:

(c.) To erect, build, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire breweries, distilleries, malt-houses, and other buildings, plant, machinery, and other personal property of whatsoever nature for the purpose of carrying into effect the aforesaid objects and the business of the Company:

(d.) To use steam, water, electricity, or any other power as a motive power or otherwise in connection with the Company's business:

(e.) To purchase, lease, take in exchange, or otherwise acquire lands or any interest therein, together with any buildings or structures that may be on the said lands or any of them, and goods and chattels and any rights, privileges, or concessions, and to sell, lease, exchange, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the whole or any portion of the same:

(f.) To develop the resources of and turn to account the rents, leases, holdings, estates, property, concessions, and rights for the time being of the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(g.) To take over or otherwise acquire or hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part capable of being so conducted as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire security from any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(h.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of such company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(i.) To acquire from the Government, either Provincial or Dominion, or any municipality, or other source, authority, or otherwise, any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges as may be found necessary or advisable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling this Company to carry any of its objects into effect, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, Statute, by-laws, charter, licences, or other executive or legislative authority:

(j.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of moneys in such manner or form as the Company may think fit, and by such means as may from time to time be necessary or deemed advisable for the purposes of this Company, and to mortgage or pledge any or all of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing the same, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(k.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, documents, or securities:

(l.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or Territory of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(m.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of companies having objects altogether or in part similar to this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(n.) To distribute any of the properties of the Company in specie among the shareholders:

(o.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered for placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company:

(p.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, and to take or acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(q.) To do all such other acts and things as are necessary, incidental, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally such powers and privileges as may from time to time be conferred upon the Company by any authority whatsoever:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company defined by the "Trust Companies Act."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

" COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2490 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Continental Investment Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To purchase and otherwise acquire and deal in, hold, sell, lease, mortgage, and hypothecate real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, mines, minerals, coal and oil lands, surface rights and rights-of-way, water records and privileges, business concerns and undertakings, mortgages, charges, annuities, patents, licences, shares, stocks, debentures, securities, policies, book debts, claims, and any interest in real or personal property, and any claims against such property or against any person or company:

(2.) To act and conduct business as financial, insurance, collection, real-estate, house, special, general agents and brokers; to acquire agencies and to be appointed agents for any person, firm, or corporation, and to act generally as appraisers, valuers, or adjusters of real estate, personal estate, stocks, goods and chattels, or for any other lawful purpose; to act as accountants and auditors and to assume and perform such duties as are or may be performed by accountants and auditors:

(3.) To acquire, buy, sell, lease, and deal in lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, patent or other rights or privileges, and generally any property or rights whatsoever of any kind, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein, which the Board may consider desirable in the interest of the Company or in connection with any business carried on by it, or which may be considered capable of being profitably dealt in or made by the Company, and to lay out land as parks or places of public recreation:

(4.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, shingle-mills, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though constructed and maintained by any other company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects:

(5.) To carry on business as general contractors for the carrying-out, construction, installation, and completion of works, erections, and contracts of all kinds:

(6.) To borrow money on security of the whole or any part of property and assets belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(7.) To lend money on the security of, acquire, hold, issue, negotiate, place, guarantee the subscription of, underwrite, and deal in stocks, shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, mortgages, obligations, and securities of all kinds issued, granted, created, guaranteed, or made by any Government, Sovereign, Ruler, or authority, or by any corporation, company, firm, or person:

(8.) To lend and advance money at interest on the security of real or personal property of any kind, or without security, and generally upon such terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient:

(9.) To establish or promote any company or similar body and to form and manage syndicates:

(10.) To give any guarantee for the payment of money or the carrying-out of any contract or obligation, and in particular to guarantee the principal and interest of any shares, stocks, loans, debentures, and securities:

(11.) To carry on and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation, whether mercantile, commercial, financial, manufacturing, trading, or otherwise (except life assurance), which an individual capitalist could lawfully undertake and carry out:

(12.) To improve, manage, work, mine, develop, and turn to account any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company or in which the Company is interested, and to sell, lease, convert into money, barter, or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, stocks, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(13.) To draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(14.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on, or authorized or intended to carry on, any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owing or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire, hold, and deal with the shares, stocks, or securities of such company:

(15.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company's business:

(16.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company:

(17.) To create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any securities of the Company by means of a trust deed or otherwise, and, in the case of uncalled capital, to confer upon the encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls as the directors may think fit:

(18.) To issue any shares or securities which the Company has power to issue by way of security and indemnity to any person whom the Company has agreed or is bound or willing to indemnify, or in satisfaction of any liability, and generally in every respect upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration as the Board may think fit:

(19.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the incorporation or in or about the promotion of this or any other company, and the obtaining and subscription of shares and debenture capital thereof, or the quotation thereof upon any stock exchange or bourse:

(20.) To amalgamate the business with that of any other company, firm, or person, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such company, firm, or person, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities or assets of this or any such other company, firm, or person as aforesaid, and to enter into any partnership or arrangement in the nature of partnership or any joint-purse or profit-sharing arrangement with any company, firm, or person:

(21.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(22.) To arrange for the representation of the Company and to procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any part of the world:

(23.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(24.) To take all necessary and proper steps in Parliament, or with any foreign, colonial, or other Government, or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) of any place in which the Company may have interests for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to oppose any Act, Bill, provisional order, or concession which may seem, directly or indirectly, opposed to the Company's interests, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or person:

(25.) To give pensions, gratuities, donations, and emoluments to any person at any time in the employment of the Company, and the wives, widows, families, and dependents of any such persons, and to support, subscribe to any national, educational, scientific, literary, religious, or charitable institutions or objects, or trade societies, and to any establishment which may be considered in any way calculated to advance the interests of the Company, or of the persons employed by the Company, or to subscribe towards or guarantee the expenses of or otherwise take part in the promotion of any exhibition:

(26.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents for others, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or persons, firm or company, as trustee or agent for the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person or persons, firm, company, Government, body, or authority:

(27.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(28.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(29.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(30.) It is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause, except where used in reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and wherever domiciled; and also that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause be deemed independent objects of this Company, and, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company, that the Company may exercise all or any of the powers therein contained:

Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or empower the Company to transact any business or do anything whereby it may be brought within the scope of the "Trust Companies Act."

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2498 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Merritt Collieries, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of two million dollars, divided into twenty thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and take over the mines, works, lands, property, machinery, plant, and equipment of the Diamond Vale Collieries, Limited, situate at Merritt, in the Province of British Columbia, and to provide for the payment therefor either by the allotment of shares in this Company or in cash, or partly by shares and partly by cash:

(b.) To otherwise buy, sell, and deal in real estate, mines and minerals, and particularly lands containing veins or seams of coal, in or under the said lands anywhere whatsoever in the Province of British Columbia, and to acquire such lands, mines, real estate, either by purchase, lease, or exchange, or in any way whatsoever as may seem advisable to the Company:

(c.) To carry on the business of miners of every description, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise mines and mining locations, ores, and minerals, and to explore, develop, work, and treat any such mines, mining locations, ores, and minerals, and to pay for all such mines, mining locations, ores, minerals, mining interests, and mining property either by cash or by allotments of shares of this Company:

(d.) To manufacture coke, tar, gas, and other by-products of coal, and to sell and dispose of the same:

(e.) To acquire and maintain the full right and power to make, secure, and use all pits, shafts, drifts, levels, drains, watercourses, and reservoirs, and to construct, erect, maintain, and use tram-roads and other roads, bridges, culverts, buildings, works, engines, machinery, coal-bunks, and all conveniences whatsoever as may be necessary or convenient for searching for, working, getting, preparing, carrying away, and disposing of the products of the said mines or seams of coal upon any lands whatsoever acquired by the Company:

(f.) To build, construct, erect, maintain, and alter and change any such houses, buildings, tram-roads and other roads, bridges, and works that may at any time be necessary for the purposes of the Company:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, exchange, lease, or otherwise wharves and docks, and lands for the same on the sea-coast, or on lakes, bays, rivers, or other waters, and right-of-way thereto and therefrom; and to construct and maintain upon lands acquired by the Company such wharves, docks, and other buildings thereon and appertaining thereto as may be necessary for the more convenient carrying away of the products of the mines and mineral lands to be acquired by the Company:

(h.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise for the use of the Company, their agents, servants, or workmen, free and uninterrupted rights-of-way, ingress, and egress for persons, animals, and vehicles through, along, or over any piece or parcel of land necessary and expedient to pass over to and from their lands, mines, docks, and wharves, and other property of the Company whatsoever:

(i.) To acquire by purchase, lease, charter-party, contract, or otherwise steamboats, tug-boats, sailing-vessels, or any other kind of boats or vessels whatsoever, and to build and construct any such kind of boats or vessels deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes and objects of the Company, and to use, maintain, or operate any or all of such boats and vessels for the conveying away of the coal and other products of the mines and mineral lands of the Company:

(j.) To construct and lay down sewers, drains, and water-pipes in and upon and to and from the property and mines and mineral lands of the Company for the purpose of conveyance to and from any such lands for the better maintaining and development of the works and business of the Company:

(k.) To prospect and search for mines and minerals, and particularly for veins and seams of coal, and doing improvement and development work in connection with prospective mines, and acquiring options upon and carrying out investigations of mineral lands, or purchase same, in all respects as fully and effectually as an individual can or may do:

(l.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any lands or shore rights for any water-power or other power, and to construct, procure, and maintain dams, machinery, buildings, and all appliances whatsoever for the development of such water or other power, for the purpose of enabling the Company to carry out more effectually and economically the mining operations of the said Company:

(m.) To dispose of the products of the mines of the Company in any way or manner deemed best, and to sell their coal, either by contract, wholesale or retail, and to maintain, control, and operate coal-yards in any city or town in the Province of British Columbia, as may appear beneficial to the interests of the Company:

(n.) To acquire by purchase, lease, pre-emption, or in exchange or otherwise land and any interests therein, and to hold the same, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company, and to survey, lay out townsites, and subdivide the same or any part thereof, and to clear, manage, farm, cultivate, dyke, reclaim, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use, or improve the same, and sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of the same or any portion thereof, or any interest therein, when and as the Company may deem fit, and to deal in any products thereof:

(o.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, or lake in British Columbia or elsewhere for the use of their business, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(p.) To develop and turn to account any land or other property acquired by or in which the Company is interested and in particular the laying-out of townsites and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings and works of every description, and by planting, paving, draining, dyking, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement or otherwise, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with purchasers, builders, tenants, and others:

(q.) To own, construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, control, and manage townsites, water-works, gasworks, reservoirs, tramways, electric power, heat, and light supply works, telephone-works, clubs, restaurants, baths, places of worship, places of amusement, pleasure-grounds, parks, gardens, reading-rooms, stores and shops, and any industrial, educational, recreational, or other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to its welfare, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control, and management thereof, and to collect remuneration for the use of the same:

(r.) The acquisition of water and water-power by records of unrecorded water, or by the purchase of water records or water privileges for and the application of such water and water-powers to any of the purposes of the Company:

(s.) The use of water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, and for constructing, operating, and maintaining electric works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for the generating of electricity or electric power, or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or by persons and companies contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power for the operation of motors, machinery, or electric-lighting or other works, or to be supplied by the Company to consumers for lighting, heating, or as a motive power for propelling tramways, or for driving, hauling, lifting, pumping, lighting, crushing, smelting, drilling, and milling, or for any other operations to which it may be adapted, or to be used or supplied for or in connection with any other purposes for which electricity or electric power may be applied or required:

(t.) The use of water for water-power for hydraulic-mining purposes, for general irrigation purposes within the Province of British Columbia, and for milling, manufacturing, industrial, and mechanical purposes, other than the generation of electricity:

(u.) Placing, sinking, laying, fitting, maintaining, and repairing electric lines, accumulators, storage-batteries, electric cables, mains, wires, pipes, switches, connections, branches, electric motors, dynamos, engines, machines, or other apparatus or devices, cts., drains, watercourses, pipes, poles, buildings, and other erections and works, and erecting and placing any electric line, cable, main, wire, or other electric apparatus above or below ground:

(v.) Constructing, equipping, operating, and maintaining electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers and freight:

(w.) Constructing, equipping, operating, and maintaining telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(x.) The supplying of compressed air, electricity, and electric power or any other form of developed power to consumers for any purposes to or for which compressed air, electric power, or any other form of developed power may be applied or required:

(y.) For rendering water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water, or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvement and use of said water and water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(z.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in any manner that the Company shall think fit, and in particular by pledging or mortgaging any of the Company's mines, mineral lands, or other real property or assets, and by the issuing of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including the uncalled capital, and to redeem and pay off from time to time all such security:

(aa.) To draw, make, accept, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(bb.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof, or any of its property or assets, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for charges, debentures, or security of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(cc.) To make and enter into agreements and contracts with any person or persons, company or companies, Government or corporation, as the Company may deem advisable:

(dd.) To erect and build dwelling-houses for its employes and workmen, and any and all other buildings necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Company:

(ee.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may deem best:

(ff.) To acquire and carry on any part of the business or property and to undertake any liability of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of the Company:

(gg.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, and to amalgamate, enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits with any other company or person carrying on or about to carry on business similar altogether or in part to this Company:

(hh.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing and promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks of, and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligation of any such company:

(ii.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(jj.) To enter into any arrangement with the Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(kk.) To obtain Acts of Congress, Acts of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry out any of its objects, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(ll.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(mm.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(nn.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company, upon any terms, with powers to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, and obligations of any other company:

(oo.) To pledge, sell, or mortgage any mortgage or other security, or any other real or personal property held by the Company from time to time, and to make and execute all requisite conveyances and assurances in respect thereof:

(pp.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purposes of the said Company and to promote the objects and business of the said Company:

(qq.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by this Company, as hereinbefore stated, either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such fully paid-up shares:

(rr.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(ss.) To pay the expenses of the incorporation of the Company, and to pay commissions or other remuneration to brokers or other persons for placing, selling, underwriting, or otherwise disposing of the Company's shares, debentures, or other securities or property, and to pay wages or salary for services rendered either in money or by allotment of shares in the Company:

(tt.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated, or otherwise duly constituted, if necessary or advisable, according to the law of the United Kingdom or any Colony of the United Kingdom or any foreign country.

(3.) To lay out land for building purposes, and to build on, improve, let on building leases, advance money to persons building, or otherwise develop the same in such manner as may seem expedient to advance the Company's interests:

(4.) To acquire, carry on, and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company (British, colonial, or foreign) carrying on business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property or rights suitable for any of the purposes of this Company, and to purchase, acquire, hold, sell, and deal with shares or stock of any such person or company:

(5.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authority all rights, concessions, and privileges which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(6.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, or the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property and rights so acquired:

(7.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire real and personal property of every sort and description or any interest therein, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any lands, buildings, licences, businesses, trade-marks, brands, easements, and privileges; to invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities as may from time to time be determined; to pay for any such properties, rights, or privileges either in cash or in shares of the Company, or any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares, or otherwise:

(8.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, securities under the "Bank Act," warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(9.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, give in exchange, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Company:

(10.) To sell the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit:

(11.) To obtain any provisional order, Royal charter, or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution:

(12.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any part of the Dominion of Canada, Great Britain and Ireland, and elsewhere abroad:

(13.) To amalgamate or to be amalgamated and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, for the union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, or otherwise with any company, societe anonyme, or societe en commandite carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(14.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company, and to take and otherwise acquire and hold shares or other securities in any such company, and to guarantee the payment of any securities issued by any such company, or of any dividend upon any shares issued by any such company:

(15.) To lend money to customers of the Company upon personal security, or upon his or their property, assets, and effects, or any part thereof, and to lend money generally; to guarantee the contracts of any person or company, either with or without security for such guaranty, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same or any of them:

(16.) To distribute as profits the proceeds of sale of any of the property of the Company or any part thereof among the members, whether such proceeds be received in cash, shares, or securities, or part one and part the other: Provided that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court if necessary:

(17.) To issue the shares of the Company or any of them as fully or partly paid for cash or any consideration:

(18.) To do all or any of the above things either as principals or agents, and either through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(19.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. ap30

(f.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, hire, or otherwise lands and hereditaments of any tenure, or any interest in the same, in the Province of British Columbia or in any other part of the world:

(g.) To erect and construct, either by the Company or through other parties, houses, buildings, or works of every description on any land of the Company, or upon other lands or hereditaments, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, or improve existing houses, buildings, or other works thereon; to convert and appropriate any such land into and for roads, streets, squares, gardens, and pleasure-grounds and other conveniences, and generally to deal with and improve the property of the Company:

(h.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company:

(i.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government, municipality, city, town, rural municipality, or local improvement district that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, municipality, city, town, rural municipality, or local improvement district any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangement, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such a manner as may be from time to time determined:

(l.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(m.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(o.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) To obtain any Act of the Legislature for the Province of British Columbia or of any other Province in the Dominion of Canada for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(q.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(r.) To adopt such means of making known the business of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by contests, by purchase and exhibition of such things as may seem expedient to the directors, and by publication of books, periodicals, and by grants, rewards, and donations:

(s.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(t.) To acquire by surrender or otherwise the whole or any part of the interest of any member of the Company herein:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this memorandum, except when used with reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the British Dominions or elsewhere.

(a.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of loggers and lumber, shingle, sash and door, and general manufacturers in all its branches, and to own and operate sawmills, planing and shingle mills, and all kinds of lumber-mills and machinery, and to carry on all or any of the businesses of general contractors, real-estate and financial agents, commission merchants, shipping agents, brokers, underwriters' and general insurance agents, ship builders and repairers, importers and exporters of and dealers, wholesale and retail, in all kinds of wares, merchandise, products, and machinery, and any other business of manufacturing or otherwise which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights:

(b.) To undertake and enter into contracts for and carrying out the construction of all manner of works, whether of a public or private nature, and to do all things necessary to the due carrying-out of such works, and to install, erect, and construct machinery and equipment of every kind and nature, and to take over or acquire and hold and operate timber leases or licences and tracts of land covered thereby, and to acquire, own, sell, or lease lands and buildings for its office purposes and for dwellings for employees and for store purposes:

(c.) To take over or acquire, whether by purchase or otherwise, the business and assets of any company, firm, or individual engaged in the same or similar business, and to pay for such business and assets either in cash, notes, bonds, stock, shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company:

(d.) To acquire agencies and be appointed agents for any person, firm, or corporation:

(e.) To collect money due or owing in any way to any person, firm, estate, or corporation:

(f.) To receive and collect such remuneration for its services as may be agreed on, and also all usual and customary charges, costs, and expenses in connection with any matter whatsoever:

(g.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(h.) To buy, sell, and otherwise deal in stocks, real estate, bonds, debentures, agreements for sale of land, and securities of all kinds:

(i.) To amalgamate with any other company:

(j.) To borrow money, to issue debentures, and to mortgage or otherwise hypothecate the whole or any part of the assets of the Company, including uncalled capital:

(l.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(m.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to make or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To purchase, construct, or otherwise acquire and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines, steamboats and other vessels, wharves, docks, warehouses, tramways, sawmills and other mills, and to operate the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(q.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any place or country:

(r.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise to acquire any real or personal property, and to hold, work, manage, improve, lease, let, sell, and turn to account any such real or personal property or any interest therein:

(s.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit:

(t.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(u.) To act as agent, factor, or attorney for any corporation, provincial, extra-provincial, or foreign company, firm, or individual on such terms as may be agreed on for the transaction of all the business and affairs of such company, firm, or individual:

(v.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(w.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation and registration of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered in or about the formation or promotion of the Company and the conduct of its business:

(x.) To carry on the business of the Company, as covered by the objects previously indicated, in any part of the world:

(y.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(z.) It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or from the name of the Company.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

" COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2495 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Marine Navigation and Engineering Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-second day of April, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, and especially to acquire and take over the business now carried on at the City of Vancouver by Joseph G. Hutchinson, and to pay for the same in cash or fully paid shares of this Company, or partly in cash and partly in fully paid shares of this Company:

(b.) To construct, sell, hire, lease, purchase, rent, charter, and work steamships and other vessels of any class, and to establish and maintain, either as principals or agents, lines or regular services of steamships or other vessels, and generally to carry on the business of ship-owners, and to enter into contracts for the carriage of mails, passengers, goods of any kind, cattle, and other live-stock by any means, and either by its own vessels and conveyances or by or over the vessels, conveyances, and railways of others:

(c.) To carry on the business of towing, freighting and lighterage, scow-owners, barge-owners, dredge-owners, marine engineers, shipping agents, forwarding agents, warehousemen, and wharfingers:

(d.) To construct, purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and work any tramway, wharf, pier, dock, buildings, or works capable of being used in connection with the business of the Company:

(e.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of machinery, engineers, railway and carriage builders:

(f.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, mortgage, manage, improve, turn to account, dispose of, or otherwise deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges appertaining thereto which the Company may deem to be necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, tools, implements, and stock-in-trade:

(g.) To acquire concessions or licences for the establishment and working of lines of steamships or sailing-vessels between any ports of the world, or for the formation or working of any tramway, wharf, pier, dock, or other works, or for the working of any coaches or other public conveyances, with the benefit of any subsidy attached to any such concession or licence or otherwise:

(h.) To insure the vessels and other property of the Company either by insurance effected with the Company itself as insurer or otherwise:

(i.) To grant loans on ships and vessels or on goods and merchandise carried or to be carried in any vessels:

(j.) To buy and sell merchandise for freighting the ships and vessels of the Company:

(k.) To resell or sublet any concessions or licence obtained or contract entered into:

(l.) To carry on the business of general contractors for public, private, or other works:

(m.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or of any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(n.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of the Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company, or cash, as the Company may think fit; to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(o.) To borrow, raise, or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind soever; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures or share warrants to bearer (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital), or acceptances, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Company, and other negotiable instruments:

(p.) To lend, invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required and to make advances upon such securities, stocks, and shares and other property of all kinds and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, but in no case by a purchase of the shares of the Company:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(r.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expences of or incidental to the formation, promotion, and registration of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered:

(s.) To do all or any of the above things above set out as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others in any part of the world:

(t.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire trade-marks, formulæ, secret processes, trade-names, and distinctive marks, letters patent, and similar privileges and concessions for or in any inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company or in any way connected therewith, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges and to grant licences for the use of the same, or otherwise deal with or turn to account such patents or privileges:

(u.) To do all such things and to carry on such businesses as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.*"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2515 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Wellington Lumber Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Nanaimo, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on business as timber merchants, sawmill and shingle-mill proprietors, and timber-growers, and to buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used, and to carry on business as ship-owners and carriers by land and sea, and, so far as may be deemed expedient, the business of general merchants, and to buy, clear, plant, and work timber estates, and to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company's property or rights for the time being:

(b.) To construct or otherwise acquire, operate, control, manage, and deal in the following:—

(1.) Mill or machinery, machine-shops, factories, works, appliances, and equipment of every description for the cutting, transportation, handling, manufacture, and finishing of logs and lumber, and of any manufacture of wood or pulp-wood or paper, or of wood and any other materials severally or in combination, and of all products or by-products of wood or other materials whatsoever;

(2.) Warehouses, stores, shops, sheds, yards, offices, hotels, boarding-houses, restaurants, workmen's houses, dwellings, camps, and structures of every description;

(3.) Tugs, boats, barges, scows, ships, steamers, and other vessels of every description for towing, freighting, lightering, and the conveyance of passengers and merchandise, and wharves, docks, piers, slips, and works for the improvement of navigation, also structures, appliances, and equipment for the handling of traffic in any form;

(4.) Reservoirs, dams, aqueducts, canals, flumes, drains, timber-chutes, bridges, roadways, tramways, logging-railways, telegraph and telephone lines, and all other works, appliances, and equipment incidental to the foregoing;

(5.) Power-houses, plant, machinery, equipment, and works for the generation, distribution, and utilization of any form of power, and for lighting, heating, or for any other purpose;

(c.) To obtain options over and take or acquire by purchase, lease, grant, licence, exchange, or otherwise howsoever, and either to hold or with a view to resale, lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, patent or other rights or privileges, and generally any property, timber licences, limits, and leases, claims, berths, concessions, booming-grounds, driving rights, water-powers, water lots, and other easements, rights, and privileges whatsoever in any part of the world, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein, which may be required or be considered convenient for any purpose of the Company, or in connection with any business carried on by it, or which may be considered capable of being profitably dealt in or made by the Company;

(d.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act" (chapter 229, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1911") and any amendments thereof for the time being in force, and the utilization of any water for all or any of the purposes conferred by the said "Water Act":

(e.) To improve, manage, work, develop, turn to account, and deal in and with any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company or in which the Company is interested:

(f.) To sell, lease, convert into money, exchange, barter, and grant easements, licences, or other rights over or in any other way realize or dispose of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as may be thought fit, and in particular for shares, stock, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to acquire, hold, and deal with any such shares, stocks, or securities, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(g.) To draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(h.) To purchase and otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying or authorized or intending to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire, and to pay therefor wholly or partly in cash, or wholly or partly in shares, bonds, or debentures of the Company, or otherwise:

(i.) To buy or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or deal with or in any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being profitably held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(j.) To procure the registration or legal recognition of the Company in any part of the world:

(k.) To borrow or raise money for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company; to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company by means of covering or trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(l.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with incorporation or promotion of this or any other company, and obtaining the subscription of any shares or securities thereof, and procuring or obtaining settlements and quotations upon any stock exchange, whether foreign, colonial, or provincial, of any of such shares or securities:

(m.) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of and the payment of the principal of or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures, or securities of any company or person in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders:

(n.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, subject or not to the liability of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company, or in any other manner, and to enter into partnership, or any arrangement in the nature of a partnership, or any joint-purse or profit-sharing arrangement with any company or person:

(o.) To take all necessary and proper steps in any Parliament, or with any foreign, colonial, or other Government, or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world, for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or provisional order or concession to others, and to apply for, procure or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or person:

(p.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(q.) To do all or any of the aforesaid things through subsidiary companies, and promote any company having objects in whole or in part similar to those of this Company, or whose objects shall include the acquisition of any of the assets or liabilities of this Company, or the promotion of which shall be thought calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders, and to acquire, hold, and deal in shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(r.) To do all or any of the aforesaid matters in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company, or of any other person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in conjunction with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(s.) To do all such other things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

II. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To enter into and carry into effect, with such (if any) modifications as may be agreed upon, an agreement in the terms of a draft agreement already prepared, and for the purposes of identification initialled by "J. S. W. Pugh," and expressed to be made between Charles Alexander Fleming and McTaggart Cowan of the one part, and this Company of the other part, and to acquire the property and rights and to carry on the business therein referred to in such manner as the Board of this Company may consider expedient:

(b.) To carry on business as quarriers, quarry-masters and quarry-owners, and stone merchants, and to buy, sell, get, work, hew, mine, quarry, polish, crush, and prepare for market or use stone, lime, limestone, marble, clay, brick, earth, and building materials of all kinds:

(c.) To carry on business as manufacturers and wholesale and retail dealers in lime, limestone, cement, mortar, plaster, concrete, bricks, tiles, pipes, pottery, earthenware, china, terra-cotta, and building materials and ceramic ware of all kinds, and as builders and contractors for the erection of works and buildings of all descriptions in the erection or construction of which concrete, cement, plaster, lime, bricks, pottery, terra-cotta, stone, or marble is required:

(d.) To carry on the business of manufacturing lumber, shingles, and all log and timber products, and to erect, own, lease, and operate mills and factories for such purpose; to generate steam and electrical energy and all other kinds of heat, light, and power from the combustion of sawmill refuse, or from any other material which may hereafter be known as suitable for such purpose, and to manufacture any and all kinds of product and by-products from wood, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(e.) To buy, sell, manufacture, let on hire, lease, export, and deal in all kinds of articles and things which may be required for the purpose of any of the said businesses or commodities supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in any such businesses, or which may appear capable of being profitably dealt in in connection with the said businesses:

(f.) To carry on the business of smelters, refiners, assayers, dealers in bullion, metals, and products of smelting of every kind and description:

(g.) To procure options over and obtain by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, development, discovery location, assignment, or otherwise, and to hold, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, coal and oil lands, coal-mines and oil-wells, mineral claims or prospects, mineral lands, mineral rights, lands, timber lands, limits, or leases, and timber claims:

(h.) To construct or otherwise acquire, equip, operate, control, manage, dispose of, lease, and otherwise deal in:—

(1.) Brick-kilns, lime-kilns, crushing-works, reduction-works, smelters and smelting-works, iron-works, mills and factories, and undertakings of all kinds:

(2.) Warehouses, stores, shops, sheds, yards, offices, hotels, boarding-houses, restaurants, workmen's houses, dwellings, camps, and structures of every description:

(3.) Tugs, boats, barges, scows, ships, steamers, and other vessels of every description for towing, freighting, lightering, and the conveyance of passengers and merchandise, and wharves, docks, piers, slips, and works for the improvement of navigation, also grain-elevators, structures, appliances, and equipment for the handling of traffic in any form:

(4.) Reservoirs, dams, aqueducts, canals, flumes, drains, timber-chutes, bridges, roadways, tramways, logging-railways, telegraph and telephone lines, and all other works, appliances, and equipment incidental to the foregoing:

(5.) Power-houses, plant, machinery, equipment, and works for the generation, distribution, and utilization of any form of power, and for lighting, heating, or for any other purpose:

(6.) Mills or machinery, machine-shops, factories, works, appliances, and equipment of every description for the cutting, transportation, handling, manufacture, and finishing of logs and lumber, and of any manufacture of wood or of pulp-wood or paper, or of wood and any other materials severally or in combination, and of all products or by-products of wood or other materials whatsoever:

(i.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act," being chapter 239 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1911," and any amendment thereof for the time being in force, and the utilization of water for power purposes, either direct or by the production of steam, or for any mining purposes, and for the irrigation of land for agricultural or horticultural purposes, and generally, without restricting the generality of the above words, all powers conferred upon companies by the said "Water Act":

(j.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit, and to seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere; and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch, employ, and finance expeditions, engineers, and other experts, and to report on all classes of property and enterprises for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms:

(k.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which may be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stock, or obligations of this Company:

(l.) To carry on any other business, manufacturing or otherwise, which may appear to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above-specified businesses, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the above properties or rights:

(m.) To carry on a general mercantile and agency business and the businesses of warehousemen, wharfingers, shippers, and common carriers:

(n.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(o.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, and hold, mortgage, lease, let, and sell, any real or personal property, stocks, bonds, and shares and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(p.) To construct, maintain, and alter any building or other works necessary or convenient for the purposes of this Company:

(q.) To lay out land for building purposes, and to build on, improve, let on building leases, advance money to persons building on, and otherwise develop the same in such manner as may seem expedient to advance the Company's interests:

(r.) To give pensions, gratuities, donations, and emoluments to any person at any time in the employment of the Company, or engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, families, and dependents of any such persons, and to found, support, or subscribe to any schools, hospitals, dispensaries, dining-rooms, baths, and places of recreation, and any national, educational, scientific, literary, religious, or charitable institutions or objects, and any trade societies (whether such societies be solely connected with any trade or trades carried on by the Company or not) and any club or other establishment which may be considered to be in any way calculated to advance the interests of the Company or of the persons employed by the Company, and to subscribe towards or guarantee the expenses of or otherwise take part in the promotion of any exhibition, and to make grants of land for any of such purposes:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, and otherwise deal with the undertaking and all or any part of the property and rights of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, assets, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(u.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities and to pledge debentures as security for temporary loans:

(v.) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payment of the principal of or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures, or securities of, any company or person in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders:

(w.) To create, draw up, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(x.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company or in any other manner; and to enter into partnership, or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint-purse or profit-sharing arrangement with any company or person:

(y.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(z.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(aa.) To remunerate by the issue of paid-up shares or otherwise any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the conduct of its business:

(bb.) To pay all or any expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion, and incorporation of the Company, or to contract with any person, firm, or company to pay the same, and to pay commissions to brokers and others for placing, selling, or guaranteeing the subscription of any shares, debentures, or securities of the Company:

(cc.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, or privileges which may appear conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(dd.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by and through agents, trustees, or otherwise, and either alone or in connection with others:

(ee.) To do all such things as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of any or all of the Company's objects:

(ff.) It is expressly declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects set forth in each paragraph of this clause shall be construed in the most liberal way, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to any other paragraph or by any inference drawn from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of this Company.

PART MANN PROPERTIES, LIMITED.

THE "COMPANIES ACT."—COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES.

Resolution pursuant to Section 24 of the "Trust Companies Act" of the "Port Mann Properties, Limited." Passed April 30th, 1914.

AT the third ordinary meeting of the members of the said Company, duly convened and held at the registered office of the Company, 511-515 Rogers Building, 470 Granville Street, Vancouver, B.C., on the 30th day of April, 1914, the following resolution was duly passed as an extraordinary resolution:—

It was resolved unanimously that—

Whereas since the incorporation of the Company His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, has enacted the "Trust Companies Act";

And whereas this Company has powers which under the said "Trust Companies Act" are construed as trust powers, and is under the said Act a trust company;

And whereas this Company has never exercised any of the said trust powers, and it is desirable to abandon the same as provided by the said "Trust Companies Act":

Now, therefore, be it hereby resolved, That the memorandum of association of Port Mann Properties, Limited, be altered as follows:—

1. In clause 3 (t) the words "and trustee" shall be struck out.

2. In clause 3 (jj) the word "trustees" shall be struck out wherever the same appears throughout that clause.

3. The following shall be added to clause 3 (mm):—

"Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the 'Trust Companies Act.'"

The objects of the Company as altered are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, pre-emption, or in exchange or otherwise, land and any interests therein, and to hold the same, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company, and to survey, lay out townsites, and subdivide the same or any part thereof, and to clear, manage, farm, cultivate, dyke, reclaim, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use, or improve the same, and sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of the same or any portion thereof, or any interest therein, when and as the Company may deem fit, and to deal in any products thereof:

(b.) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, tramways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(c.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, to sell, lease, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, and otherwise deal in, any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to own, develop, and operate, steam, electric, and hydraulic plants for the purpose of generating heat, light, and power for the uses of the Company in connection with any of its operations, and to dispose of any surplus thereof not required for such operations, and in connection therewith to enter into all and any contracts and agreements for the supply of heat, light, and power that the Company may deem proper: Provided, however, that all sales, transmission, or distribution of electric or other power beyond the lands of the Company shall be subject to local and municipal regulations in that behalf:

(e.) To build, install, maintain, and operate one or more systems of waterworks for the proper supply of water to the holders and purchasers of the property of the Company and others, and, in connection therewith, aqueducts, filtration plants, pumping-stations, mains, connections, and other accessories and adjuncts to such waterworks; to sell and dispose of said water, and for such purposes to enter into any contracts that may be considered advisable by the Company:

(f.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(g.) To import, export, trade, purchase, sell, manufacture, and deal in goods, wares, produce, and merchandise of every description:

(h.) To issue on commission, subscribe for, take, acquire, purchase, hold, sell, exchange, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise deal in stocks, bonds, debentures, and shares of other corporations, or shares and interests in any other business, whether incorporated or not:

(i.) To purchase, acquire, and take over the business or undertaking and the goodwill of any business of any other company or individual carrying on any business of a nature or character similar to any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, and to pay for such business or undertaking either in cash or with fully paid-up and non-assessable shares of this Company:

(j.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, co-operation, or otherwise with any other company, person, or persons carrying on or to carry on any business or works or undertaking which this Company is authorized to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold debentures, bonds, shares, or stock or securities of any such company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to buy, sell, and otherwise deal in all such shares and securities:

(k.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company:

(l.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company:

(m.) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water-powers, water privileges, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, and by diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any channel or channels:

(n.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere the business of a power company or any business of the Company within the meaning of the "Water Act, 1909," of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, and to acquire any necessary licences therefor; to pay all such fees and charges, and execute all such documents, and do all such things that may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act, 1909," and of the "Power Companies Relief Act, 1902":

(o.) To obtain by purchase, pre-emption, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, within British Columbia and elsewhere, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, petroleum lands, peat and coal lands in which are situated oil and gas wells, clay, brick-earth, and sand, and any land or other property necessary to the advantageous possession and use of the mines or works for the time being owned or worked by the Company, and to turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(p.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, pre-empt, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any timber lands in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber limits by lease, licence, or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and any rights or privileges in connection therewith, and to develop and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(q.) To undertake and carry on the business of financial agents, insurance agents, estate agents, brokers, and dealers in all kinds of property, real and personal, on agency terms, and generally to carry on a general agency business:

(r.) To form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds:

(s.) To negotiate loans and to lend money:

(t.) To act as agent or factor for any corporation, company, or individual upon such terms as to agency and commission as may be agreed:

(u.) Generally to act as bailee of any or all kinds of personal property and effects upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed, and to receive and accept powers of attorney on behalf of any person, persons, or corporation, and to act as attorneys for any person, persons, or corporation, and to accept and act as the proxy or proxies of any person, persons, or corporation, and to attend and vote at meetings of any company as such proxy or proxies:

(v.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by brokers, capitalists, promoters, financiers, concessionaires, merchants, and any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on or in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(w.) To undertake and execute any undertakings which may seem desirable, and either gratuitously or otherwise:

(x.) To make advances in cash, goods, or other supplies to other persons, companies, or firms, and to take and hold real estate and personal security for the same:

(y.) To give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation or undertaking, including the guaranteeing of any investment made by the Company:

(z.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(aa.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(bb.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(cc.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(dd.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(ee.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any of the property and rights of the Company:

(ff.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(gg.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(hh.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in the placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(ii.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(jj.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(kk.) To do all such other things as may seem to the Company to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(ll.) To increase the capital stock of the Company:

(mm.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof, except (cc), (dd), (hh), and (ll), shall be interpreted as a separate power, and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph: Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act." my14

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2520 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Pogue's Automatic Car Fenders, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into fifty thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of New Westminster, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twelfth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any interests in any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention in relation to street-car fenders or equipment, or generally any invention which may seem to the Company capable of being profitably dealt with, and in particular to acquire from Robert H. Pogue the benefit of certain existing inventions in relation to new and useful improvements in street-car fenders, and particularly patents for new and useful improvements in street-car fenders issued to the said Robert H. Pogue by the Governments of Canada and United States, the Canadian patent for the said new and useful improvement in street-car fenders being numbered 147199, and the United States patent for such new and useful improvement being numbered :

(b.) To use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any such patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, and information aforesaid:

(c.) To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter, and exchange, let on hire, export, and deal in all kinds of articles and things which may be required for the purpose of any of the said businesses, or commonly supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in any such businesses, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the said businesses:

(d.) To carry on any other business (manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above-specified businesses, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(e.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(f.) To enter into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(g.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(h.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(i.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(k.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, timber limits, berths, licences, leases, claims, concessions, foreshore, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(l.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(m.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, tramways, branches, sidings, stream improvements, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, docks, manufactorys, warehouses, engineering and electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(n.) To divert, store, take, and carry away, supply, and use water from any stream, river, or lake in British Columbia or elsewhere for the use of its business, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to have, use, exercise, and enjoy all the powers, rights, and privileges of a company under the "Water Act, 1909," and amending Acts, including the construction and operation of works and the supply and utilization of water under the said Act or any amendments thereto:

(o.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(q.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(r.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(s.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(u.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(v.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any foreign country or place:

(w.) To sell, improve, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(x.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(y.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(z.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(z1.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of the clause shall, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the company.

VANCOUVER ISLAND PROPERTIES AND SECURITIES, LIMITED.

AT the extraordinary general meeting of the Vancouver Island Properties and Securities, Limited, held at the registered offices of the Company, 1016 Government Street, Victoria, B.C., on the 21st day of April last, an extraordinary resolution was passed, cancelling clause (10) and striking out the words "trustees" in clause (18) of the memorandum of association, which give power to act as a trust company.

The objects of the Company as altered are:—

(1.) To purchase and otherwise acquire and deal in, hold, sell, lease, mortgage, and hypothecate real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, mines, minerals, coal and oil lands, surface rights and rights-of-way, water records and privileges, business concerns and undertakings, mortgages, charges, annuities, patents, licences, shares, stocks, debentures, securities, policies, book debts, claims, and any interest in real or personal property, and any claims against such property or against any persons or company:

(2.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or in property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, shingle-mills, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though constructed and maintained by any other company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects:

(3.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land, and to sell or otherwise dispose of, exchange, lease, rent, mortgage, or otherwise encumber lands, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land:

(4.) To act and conduct business as financial, insurance, collection, real-estate, house, special, and general agents and brokers; to acquire agencies and to be appointed agent for any person, firm, or corporation; to act generally as appraiser, valuator, or adjuster of real estate, personal estate, stocks, goods, and chattels, or for any other lawful purpose; to act as accountant and auditor, and to assume and perform such duties as are or may be performed by accountants and auditors:

(5.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property and assets:

(6.) To borrow money on security of the whole or any part of property and assets belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bill of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(7.) To lend and advance money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments, and in all respects to have and enjoy the same powers and privileges with regard to lending its money and transacting its business as a private individual could have and enjoy:

(8.) To acquire and hold water licences, privileges, and franchises under the provisions of the "Water Act"; to apply for and, when granted, to have and exercise the powers and privileges conferred by Part IX. of the "Water Act," and to apply for and receive a certificate or certificates of approval under the provisions of said Act, and to undertake the construction and operation of all works and undertakings authorized by the said Act:

(9.) The constructing, operating, and maintaining electric works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for the generating of electricity or electric power or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or by persons, companies, or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power for the operation of motors, machinery, or electric-lighting or other works, or to be supplied by the Company to consumers for heating or as a motive power for propelling, tramways, or for driving, hauling, lifting, pumping, lighting, crushing, smelting, drilling, and milling, or for any other operations to which it may be adapted, or to be used or supplied for or in connection with any other purposes for which electricity or electric power may be applied or required:

(11.) To purchase, lease, construct, and hold or otherwise acquire foreshore with territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, real and personal property, patents, machinery, warehouses, wharves, and other buildings and easements, and to sell, lease, or mortgage the same or any part thereof:

(12.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(13.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(14.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(15.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(16.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(17.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of companies having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(18.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the Company's objects as expressed shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen, and not to restrict, the powers of the Company.

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, either in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, retail and wholesale cigar and tobacco stores, factories and warehouses, together with all fixtures and other appurtenances thereto, including the premises, stock-in-trade, book debts, good-will, and trade-name of the same, together with all privileges, grants, or rights connected therewith, and to pay for the same in shares of the Company or in cash, or partly in cash and partly in shares of the Company, and to own, hold, sell, mortgage, or hypothecate and deal with the same or any part thereof:

(b.) To carry on business in the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere as retail or wholesale dealers in manufacturers, curers, exporters, and importers of cigars, cigarettes, chewing and smoking tobacco, cheroots, snuff, and all kindred or by-products, including leaf and raw tobacco, and either by wholesale or retail; to deal in, import, export, or manufacture all requisites for smoking or otherwise using tobacco and its products:

(c.) To acquire lands and buildings for all or any of the purposes of the Company, and to purchase and install all fittings, fixtures, machinery, plant, and appliances as may be necessary for carrying out the objects of the Company:

(d.) To buy, sell, exchange, hold, own, hypothecate, or dispose of real estate:

(e.) To act as commission agents, and to sell and buy real and personal property, or property partly real and partly personal, of all kinds, either on commission or otherwise:

(f.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any patented process or improvements or devices or mechanisms for the purpose of furthering any of the objects of the Company, and to take out patents for any improvements thereon in any country whatsoever for any purpose of the Company, and to lease or hire out any rights or privileges in connection therewith, and to apply for and obtain and hold from any Federal, Provincial, or municipal authority licences for the manufacture or sale of cigars, cheroots, cigarettes, snuff, chewing and smoking tobacco, or leaf tobacco:

(g.) To carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company shall think fit:

(h.) To acquire or dispose of any business or property and to undertake the liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company for such consideration as the Company shall think fit:

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company:

(k.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, rights, authorities, licences, powers, properties, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable, convenient, or desirable for the purposes or benefit of the Company:

(l.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property and rights or information so acquired:

(m.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, company, or corporation carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, or having the power to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and also to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(n.) And for the purposes of the Company to lend and invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required and to make advances upon stocks, shares, debentures, debenture stock, and other securities, and upon properties of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(o.) To take and otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(p.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in kind among the members:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and also any other mercantile instruments, whether negotiable or transferable or not:

(r.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms and upon such securities as the Company thinks fit, and in particular (and without limiting the generality of this object) by the issue of bonds, debentures, and debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(s.) To increase the capital of the Company from time to time in such manner as may be allowed by law, and to issue the shares to be created for that purpose, and also any portion of the shares forming part of the present capital of the Company, subject to the restrictions contained in the articles of association:

(t.) To pay out of the funds of this Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company by money, shares, or otherwise for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(u.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(v.) To do such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(w.) To do all or any part of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(x.) The objects specified in each clause herein shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from any other clause or the name of the Company.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 2522 (1910).

I HEREBY certify that "The Atlin Fur Farming Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the Town of Atlin, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twelfth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To buy or otherwise acquire and to trap, breed, deal in, and sell fur-bearing animals of all kinds, and to pay for the same by the issue of paid-up stock in the Company:

(b.) To buy or otherwise acquire, and to cure and prepare for market, and to sell or otherwise dispose of furs and peltries of all kinds:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise lands for the purpose of keeping, housing, and breeding fur-bearing animals of all kinds and for any other of the purposes of the Company, and to pay for such lands by the issue of paid-up stock in the Company:

(d.) To improve such lands, and to construct, maintain, and operate all such buildings and works as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company:

(e.) To sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the Company's business for cash or for stock, bonds, debentures, securities, or shares of any other company or concern carrying on a business in whole or in part similar to that of this Company, and to distribute such consideration amongst the shareholders of the Company, and to amalgamate with any such company or concern on terms to be agreed on:

(f.) To remunerate, either in cash or in paid-up or partly paid shares in the Company, any person, firm, or corporation for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company in connection with its incorporation, promotion, or organization, or in connection with the conduct of the Company's business, or for profits or rights acquired by the Company:

(g.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the above objects:

(h.) The business of the Company is from time to time to do any one or more of the acts and things herein set forth.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.RE JOHN ENGLAND, DECEASED.

NOTICE is hereby given that all creditors and persons having any claims or demands upon or against the estate of John England, late of Kamloops, in the Province of British Columbia, deceased (who died on or about the 30th day of August, 1913, and whose will was proved by William Charles England, of Kamloops aforesaid; Harriet Schlanser, of Fargo, North Dakota; and James Thomas England, of the City of Vancouver, in the said Province of British Columbia, the executors therein named, on the 30th day of January, 1914, in the Supreme Court of British Columbia), are hereby required to send in the particulars of their claims and demands to Messrs. Bowser, Reid & Wallbridge, of the Canada Life Building, Hastings Street West, Vancouver, or to Messrs. MacIntyre & Chalmers, of Kamloops aforesaid, the joint solicitors for the executors, on or before the 6th day of June, 1914.

And notice is hereby also given that, after that day the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which the said executors shall then have notice, and that they will not be liable for the assets or any part thereof so distributed to any person of whose debt or claim they shall not then have had notice.

Dated this 6th day of May, 1914.

BOWSER, REID & WALLBRIDGE,
Canada Life Building,
Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B.C., and

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

[1094]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Friday, the 24th day of April, 1914.
PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHENCEAS the Coal Mining Regulations, established by Order in Council of the 20th April, 1910, provide that surveyed lands for the purpose of such regulations, shall mean a section or a part of a section, one of the boundaries of which has been defined by a surveyed line, and one of the corners of which has been marked on the ground by a survey post or mound, and the official plan of which, showing such survey and marking, has been approved by the Surveyor-General:

And whereas it would appear from representations made that coal has been discovered within the limits of the Monte Hills Forest Reserve, situated south-east of Kamloops, in the Railway Belt in the Province of British Columbia, and applications have been made to the Department of the Interior for leases of such coal mining rights:

And whereas only the outlines of the forest reserve appear to have been surveyed, so that the sections which adjoin the boundary-lines are surveyed, sections within the meaning of the regulations, while those lying within the reserve are unsurveyed;

And whereas, as the lands included in this reserve are withdrawn from sale or settlement, no further subdivision surveys within the reserve are contemplated;

Therefore,—as these lands are in a somewhat different position from other Dominion Lands affected by the Coal-mining Regulations, in as much as no further surveys are likely to be made.—His Royal Highness the Governor-General in Council is pleased to order that,—provided one of the boundaries of a tract within this forest reserve, for which application may be made under the Coal-mining Regulations has been surveyed and the survey has been approved by the Surveyor-General,—the lands may be considered surveyed lands within the meaning of the regulations.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

"BRITISH COLUMBIA RAILWAY ACT."
(Chapter 194, R.S.B.C. 1911.)

PACIFIC GREAT EASTERN RAILWAY.

THE Pacific Great Eastern Railway Company having submitted, in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of section 159, chapter 194, "British Columbia Railway Act," R.S.B.C. 1911, plan and profile of proposed road crossing and diversion, as follows:—

(1.) Proposed road diversion. Stations 525+10-529+60, Miles 9.94-10.03, Municipality of West Vancouver.

(2.) Proposed road crossing, Station 528+58, Mile 10.01, Municipality of West Vancouver.

The said plan of the before-mentioned road crossing and diversion having been concurred in by the Engineer representing the municipality through which the above line passes, and the said application and the approval of the before-mentioned plan and profile have been granted by me on the following conditions providing for the protection, safety, and convenience of the public (subsection (2), section 159, of the "British Columbia Railway Act," R.S.B.C. 1911), namely:—

(1.) That the width of the highway when diverted shall not be less than sixty-six feet (66') as shown on the plan and the grades thereof, the same as shown respectively on plan and profile thereof submitted:

(2.) That the width of the approaches to the level crossing on the line of the highway mentioned above shall not be less than twenty-four feet (24') in both excavation and embankment:

(3.) That the grade of the said approaches shall not exceed one foot in twenty feet (20') wherever such grade is practicable. Where this grade is not practicable the work shall be done to the satisfaction of the Chief Engineer of Railways:

(4.) That side ditches in both excavation and embankment formed to carry drainage water shall be properly bridged:

(5.) That the approaches in embankment shall be protected on both sides by posts and rail fencing to be at least three feet six inches (3' 6") in height:

(6.) That the planking of all highway crossings shall give a clear roadway of twenty feet (20'). The planks securely spiked to ties.

(7.) That there shall be one plank at least outside each rail:

(8.) That the top of the rails shall not be more than one inch (1") above or one inch (1") below the surface of the planking (section 158, "British Columbia Railway Act," R.S.B.C. 1911):

(9.) That in addition to the signboards provided for in section 165 of the "British Columbia Railway Act," R.S.B.C. 1911, there shall be erected and maintained at a point 200 yards from each level crossing on both sides thereof a signboard having the words "Level Railway Crossing. 200 Yards. Drive Cautiously. Stop, Look, Listen" painted thereon in black on a white ground, the letters to be not less than six inches (6") in height, on the side facing vehicles approaching the crossing:

(10.) That approved cattle-guards, side and cross fences shall be installed at every level crossing:

(11.) That all trees outside the right-of-way of the railway and the right-of-way of the road in the angles of the intersection at all highway crossings which obscure the view of both track and road in all directions shall be cut down:

(12.) That the cost of the works ordered under this certificate shall be borne by the Company subsection (3), section 160, "British Columbia Railway Act," R.S.B.C. 1911):

I do hereby, in pursuance of the provisions of subsection (2) of section 159 of the said "British Columbia Railway Act," R.S.B.C. 1911, issue to the Pacific Great Eastern Railway Company this certificate of approval of the aforesaid application, subject to the conditions above mentioned.
